Israeli Bombs

TEL AVIV (AP) — Police have discovered bombs in a dozen Christmas packages mailed from Europe and addressed to prominent Israelis, and Israeli officials said Tuesday they may mark the start of a new Arab campaign of sabotage.

Two of the bombs have exploded, injuring two policemen. The gaily wrapped packages were discovered in postal searches.

A police bomb disposal expert was seriously hurt as he dismantled a package addressed to a senior police officer. Another terror-bomb parcel exploded Sunday in Tel Aviv police headquarters, wounding an inspector.

Others were mailed to a Defense Ministry factory; government offices; former air force chief and political leader Ezer Weizman; the Atomic Energy Commission chairman; and the director of Jerusalem's Ministry of Police.

Following an urgent public warning, all of them reported the parcels to police and the parcels were exploded harmlessly by bomb disposal experts.

Police officers said the parcel explosives were likely a new sabotage move by frustrated Palestinian guerrillas. Arab underground fighters have been badly hit in recent months by tough Israeli security measures that have reduced conventional bomb and gun raids to a near-minimum.

The packages were mailed around Christmas Eve from Austria and Yugoslavia, police said.

The Christmas bombs were disguised to look like boxes of chocolates, books, desk diaries and calendars, police said.

Pat—Inauguration

MONROVIA, Liberia (AP) — Pat Nixon, sporting native dress with bouffant head scarf, tapped her foot to tribal drums Tuesday as she watched dancing girls with painted bodies and bare breasts.

It was a sharp switch from the American-style festivities that have marked much of the inaugural celebration for President William Tolbert, which included Billy Graham and the Grambling College Band from Louisiana.

Mrs. Nixon donned the tribal attire during entertainment for the U.S. delegation to the Liberian inauguration by costumed native dancers, singers and drummers.

About 150 men, women and children from all the nation's tribes provided the show at the executive mansion on the final day of the U.S. first lady's three-day visit to the West African republic.

After the inauguration itself on Monday, there were three inaugural balls lasting until 4 a.m., and everyone was up again early Tuesday morning for a presidential military review.

The Grambling College musicians joined a variety of units ranging from the Riot Squad to the National Guard and precision drill teams. Even floats from the inaugural parade were on review.

President Tolbert had taken Mrs. Nixon home a little after midnight, then went on to two other dances.

He showed up with her for the 8:30 a.m. troop review in his dark blue and gold-braid commander-in-chief uniform.

Indochina War

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. warplanes raided enemy positions and supply lines in Laos and Cambodia Tuesday.

Some of the raids hit northern Laos, where the U.S. Command belatedly reported an Air Force Phantom jet was downed last Friday. Word of the downing was held up for a search mission that failed to find the two pilots.

The U.S. Command declined to give the Phantom's mission. But the downing of the speedy jet brought to 11 the number of U.S. planes lost in Laos and North Vietnam since Dec. 10. The command lists 15 crewmen missing and 6 rescued. North Vietnam claims two airmen killed and seven captured.

The U.S. Command now has reported 217 aircraft lost in the air war over Laos since March 1970. While most of the planes hit the Ho Chi Minh supply trail, others fly support for Laotian ground forces in northern Laos.

There have been estimates that 400 U.S. planes were lost over Laos before reporting began in March 1970.

The U.S. Command has been reticent about air operations over Laos and never gives details.

Earlier the command announced enemy fire Monday shot down four helicopters, three marked with red crosses, in an engagement 40 miles northeast of Saigon. This came a week after enemy forces shot down seven U.S. helicopters in one operation northwest of the capital.

A 25-man patrol of the 3rd Brigade, 1st Air Cavalry Division, was on a dusk mission to provide security for a fire base nine miles away when it was caught in a barrage of enemy fire.

Seeks Presidential Nomination

Muskie Enters Demo Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie performed the rite of presidential candidacy Tuesday night, declaring in a nationally televised speech that he seeks the White House to lead America "A New Beginning."

He said President Nixon's administration has failed the nation in the past and "cannot take us to the future."

The front-running contender for the Democratic presidential nomination paid $30,000 to formally announce the obvious on prime-time television.

"I have come home to Maine to announce my decision to seek the office of president of the United States," Muskie said in a statement taped Monday at his summer home in Kennebunk Beach.

Muskie's organization purchased from the Columbia Broadcasting System the last 10 minutes of "The Glen Campbell Goodtime Hour" to broadcast the announcement. Production expenses brought the total cost to about $32,000.

While Muskie was formally announcing the campaign he has been waging more than a year, two of his rivals were hunting votes in the New Hampshire and Florida primaries, and a third was preparing for his own declaration of candidacy next Monday.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the Democratic nominee in 1968, when Muskie ran for vice president, plans to announce his new bid for the nomination in Philadelphia next Monday.

Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota was in New Hampshire Tuesday, filing petitions to put his name on the ballot in the March 7 lead-off presidential primary. McGovern didn't claim he would beat Muskie in that New England contest, but said the favored senator from Maine "is going to know he's been in a really tough fight in this state."

Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington was in Florida, where the second presidential primary will be held March 14, seeking voters at shopping centers, courthouses and factories in the rural, conservative northern section.

Former Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota entered the Illinois presidential primary Monday with a challenge to the state's requirement that candidates sign a loyalty oath disavowing communism or any (Turn To Page Eleven) (See "Muskie")

PHILADELPHIA — Philadelphia District Attorney Arlen Specter announced from his Philadelphia office that he was issuing warrants for the arrest of three alleged conspirators against the Penn Central Company. Wage Controversy Stalls Pay Board

WASHINGTON (AP) — A dissent-torn Pay Board deliberated a 12-per-cent raise for aerospace workers for a third time Tuesday but again was unable to decide how much to roll it back.

A majority of the panel reportedly was determined to reduce the raise, thereby ordering the board's first wage rollback.

But United Auto Workers President Leonard Woodcock, in an impromptu news conference after an all-day session broke up about 7 p.m., questioned whether the board had the power to order a rollback at all, or whether it was empowered merely to accept or reject a particular contract.

"I personally believe the board has only the power to say yes or no," Woodcock told newsmen crowded around him. "It's not a dispute machinery."

Floyd E. Smith, president of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists and, like Woodcock, a member of the Pay Board, said he had the same question as the auto union leader.

A public member of the board, Kenyon College President William G. Caples, said he also believes the board could only say yes or no to a contract, but that it could set standards to guide management and labor in negotiating any rejected contract.

Caples said the daylong discussions, during which business, public and labor members met in separate caucuses but never as a full board, went far beyond what might be an acceptable wage figure for aerospace workers.

"Actually we're arguing methodology more than anything else," Caples said.

Under consideration were agreements by the United Auto Workers and AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists covering about 114,000 production workers at six aerospace companies.

Major Banks Trim Prime Loan Rate

NEW YORK (AP) — Basic interest charges dropped to their lowest level in nearly six years Tuesday as major banks across the country trimmed their prime lending rate by 1/4 per cent to 5 per cent.

This brought their minimum lending charge to blue chip corporate customers to the level prevailing in March 1966.

The reductions reflected a sharp drop in short-term money rates in recent weeks. This made it cheaper for banks to obtain lendable funds but also provided corporations with a source of cheap funds outside regular bank channels.

Sluggish business loan demand was also a factor in the cuts, economists said.

Banks reducing their prime rate Tuesday included Chase Manhattan Bank, Bankers

Trust Co., Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co., Chemical Bank, Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of New York, and Marine Midland Grace Trust Co. of New York. Large banks in Chicago, San Francisco, and Philadelphia also followed suit, but Bank of America—the nation's largest—still held to the 5 1/4 per cent level late Tuesday.

The reductions come on the heels of a similar cut announced last Friday by Irving Trust Co. First National City Bank recently pared its minimum lending charge to 5 1/2 per cent. Last October these two banks adopted a floating rate, which more quickly responds to short-term money market rates.

Former Penn Central Officials Face Arrest

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The former finance chairman of the bankrupt Penn Central and two of his business associates were charged Tuesday in criminal warrants with illegally diverting more than $21 million from America's largest railroad.

Dist. Atty. Arlen Specter said David C. Bevan conspired with Wall Street broker Charles J. Hodge and retired Air Force Gen. Olbert F. Lassiter and "substantially drained the resources of the Penn Central, contributing to its bankruptcy in June 1970."

The railroad now is undergoing reorganization under the supervision of the U.S. District Court. It reported Tuesday a net loss for the first 11 months of 1971 of nearly $248 million. The 1970 deficit was more than $320 million.

Bevan denied any wrongdoing, calling the accusations "incredible" and "a grave mistake." He demanded an immediate trial "so I can at least be vindicated."

"I have been the scapegoat long enough," Bevan said, referring to the Penn Central's collapse.

Reached at the Hodges' home in Boca Raton, Fla., Mrs. Hodges said her husband's attorneys had instructed him not to comment.

Lassiter was not immediately available for comment.

The 57-page complaint specifically accused the three men of joining together to cheat and defraud the railroad. It alleged two major schemes:

—A plan to invest more than $21 million in Executive Jet Aviation, Inc., a charter airline based in Columbus, Ohio, and then headed by Lassiter. Such an investment violated a Civil Aeronautics Board ruling that forbade a railroad from controlling an air carrier.

—"Manipulating over $85 million in Penn Central investments" to benefit Penphil, a private investment club formed by Bevan and Hodge, who was the railroad's chief investment adviser.

The complaint said by the investment in EJA, the three men hoped to profit through a travel agency owned and controlled by them, their relatives and friends.

The fraud warrant, signed by Common Pleas Judge Elhan Allen Doty, said Penphil made $1.7 million in profits by buying and selling stocks in which the railroad had interests.

Penn Central trustees now are considering a proposal that would wipe out its $21 million investment in EJA for less than $1 million.

The CAB in 1969 fined Penn

Central $65,000, largest in its history, for its illegal control of EJA.

Specter said arrangements were being made for the three men to surrender here Thursday, with arraignment set for Thursday morning.

Each man faces a maximum prison term of four years—two years on each charge.

The Penn Central itself has accused Bevan, Hodge, and former railroad treasurer William R. Gerstenecker of an unlawful conspiracy that drove the giant transportation company—less than two years after the merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central—into bankruptcy court.

FDA Moves To Evaluate Many Non-Prescription Drug Mixes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Food and Drug Administration launched a program Tuesday to protect consumers from non-prescription drugs that may be unsafe, ineffective or mislabeled.

The agency said it will begin setting minimum standards for 26 classes of over-the-counter (OTC) drugs, which number between 100,000 and 500,000 and are sold in supermarkets and drugstores.

The first will be drawn by the end of July for ant-acids, FDA Commissioner Charles C. Edwards said. Priority then will be given to mood drugs such as stimulants and sedatives, pain relievers and cold preparations, he said.

Drug industry officials were not available for comment.

"The FDA is concerned that many present formulations do not have the claimed effectiveness, have inadequate instructions for effective use by the consumer or are promoted in deceptive and indefensible ways," Edwards said at a news conference.

He pointed to a recent evaluation of 420 OTC drugs by the National Academy of Sciences—National Research Council which found only one out of four effective.

Edwards said the review program, which will take at least three years, represents "a significant and unprecedented step toward health protection for the American public."

It comes after an item-by-item review of 2,752 prescription drugs, begun in 1968. Almost 15 per cent were found to be ineffective and 35 per cent possibly effective which, in FDA parlance, means there is little evidence they work.

Some of the ineffective prescription drugs have been removed from the market, FDA officials said, and others are embroiled in court action.

Since the government has no list of nonprescription drugs or their ingredients, Edwards said the FDA must rely heavily on manufacturers to contribute the information.

To make the program work, he added, Congress must pass a drug-listing bill which has cleared the House.

Under the FDA proposal, each OTC product not meeting the standards of the monograph, would have to be reformulated, and get approval as a new drug, or be taken off the market.

Peace Corps Forced To Reduce Services

WASHINGTON (AP) — The money-short Peace Corps began shaping plans Tuesday to reduce its 8,000-member volunteer force by half and to cancel programs in as many as 15 countries.

Joseph H. Blatchford, director of the ACTION agency which oversees the Peace Corps, ordered a halt in signing up volunteers, at least until July 1, although applications will continue to be accepted.

Blatchford instructed Kevin O'Donnell, associate director of ACTION for international affairs, to prepare plans for termination of about 4,000 volunteers now on duty in 55 foreign countries. Blatchford wants the plans implemented by mid-February so the volunteers can be returned to the United States by the end of March.

There now are about 7,100 volunteers on active assignments overseas and some 800 to 900 in training, most of them in host countries.

The present corps force is slightly more than half of what it was during the peak years of the middle 1960s.

Blatchford took Tuesday's action, it is understood, because Congress not only refused to appropriate the $82 million requested by the Nixon administration but cut funds to a level that one agency source described as "just one step above putting us out of business altogether."

In the last hour before it adjourned Dec. 17, Congress passed a continuing resolution that would give the Peace Corps a budget of $72 million.

The resolution, which expires Feb. 22, was necessary because the Senate did not act on the appropriation bill passed by the House. Both houses passed an authorization bill to give the corps $77.2 million, but the House appropriated only $68 million.

The corps hopes that when Congress reconvenes in two weeks the Senate will approve the full $77.2 million, and that a conference committee will accept that figure.

Until that happens or unless some concrete assurances are given that the additional funds will be appropriated, the corps must take steps to reduce its personnel and close down programs, because, as one agency official said, "There is a point of no return when we must use the money we have to bring these people back to the United States."

The new instructions by Blatchford will not affect some 600 highly specialized volunteers who were signed on late last year. The specialized volunteers include construction engineers and Diesel mechanics who are to go to Africa for a road-building project; a forestry specialist who also is to go to Africa, and public administrators slated for Latin America.

O'Donnell said he does not know yet which countries will lose entire Peace Corps programs, but added that volunteer forces may be reduced in all 55 countries.

Our Neverpresent Senators

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, who has frequently been indignant over the conduct of her colleagues, has decided to put her foot down on the matter of the chronic absenteeism. She feels so strongly about it that she has proposed a constitutional amendment calling for the immediate expulsion from office of any senator absent for more than 40 percent of the roll-calls.

The Senate, she said has become "a springboard to those who would use it—even abuse it—for their selfish interests, whether such interests be commercializing their position and title with the acquisition of high-price lecture fees or running for President."

While a constitutional amendment seems a rather drastic (and impractical) step, Mrs. Smith has these fellows dead to rights and something should be done, if not by statute or amendment, then at least through the adoption of strong Senate regulations discouraging absenteeism.

All one has to do to substantiate

Mrs. Chase's charges is to pick up any newspaper and read of senators galloping about the campus lecture circuit, making speeches at fund-raising dinners in states thousands of miles from their own, or touring foreign countries on highly publicized fact-finding missions.

At one political event we recently attended, a spokesman for a senator apologized for his tardiness with the excuse that he had to fly back to Washington for "an important vote."

All votes are important, not just the ones that make headlines. Senators are not elected because their constituents think they have Presidential possibilities or are suffering from a lack of publicity. They are elected because their constituents want the best possible representation in the highest legislative body in the land. Sen. Muskie, Sen. Kennedy, and a few others we could name are not giving it to them; and Mrs. Chase rightly calls this "a disgrace."

Barring Dangerous Drivers

Many Americans have understandable misgivings about possible dangers in maintaining huge central data banks. Those concerned about invasions of privacy rightly insist that the use of information accumulated in such banks ought to be put under rigid control not subject to unscrupulous manipulation.

With all due respect to this viewpoint, we note that it would be folly to decry all use of computerized data because there is a potential for abuse. In some cases, such information can evidently be made to serve the public interest without involving any undue invasion of privacy.

An excellent case in point is the National Driver Registration Service, operated in Washington by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. By means of this data bank, the number of dangerous drivers permitted to drive has been substantially reduced.

The system has now been in operation for some years. Before it was started, drivers who lost a license in one state frequently got one in another state. Under present conditions, with all the states cooperating, drivers whose applications have been denied or whose licenses have been revoked can be quickly identified. This does not lead automatically to denial of a license in another state, but drivers with poor records can be barred from driving. In consequence, far fewer dangerous drivers are on the road.

A GLANCE Into The Past

10 YEARS AGO

The two-story frame building on East Lafayette street which houses the office of the Illinois Steel Bridge Co. was badly damaged by flames early Wednesday. Fortunately all important records and blueprints were in a fireproof vault.

Phyllis Joan Johnson, a former Jacksonville resident, has been commissioned a lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force Nurse Corps.

Only 194 Carrollton residents bothered to vote Thursday on the proposed $150,000 bond issue for sewer improvements. The vote was: Yes, 162; No, 30; 2 spoiled ballots.

20 YEARS AGO

Jacksonville stores will remain open until 9 p.m. Saturdays, it was announced Thursday by the retail council of the Chamber of Commerce.

Ruckels Potteries, Inc., of White Hall has received its charter from the Illinois secretary of state. The incorporators are R. F., Elizabeth Jean and Helen I. Barnett.

The woods are full of candidates, all eager to sacrifice themselves in the service of the "peepul."

50 YEARS AGO

Coach Mitchell and his Jacksonville cage warriors have two tough games on tap this week, Waverly and Springfield. Both teams are said to be very tough and fierce this year.

Yeggmen blew the postoffice safe in Bluffs Wednesday morning and escaped with all the cash in it. Postmaster Peter Burrus thinks the amount was about $200.

Point school, west of the city, has been closed until at least Monday, on account of scarlet fever, so far confined to one family.

75 YEARS AGO

Leap year was a failure from a matrimonial standpoint. Last year only 294 marriage licenses were issued in this county, compared with 327 in 1895.

Some time Thursday night a thief or thieves invaded W. H. Dalton's grocery on South Church and Marion streets and made way with three boxes of cigars and a quantity of Horseshoe plug tobacco, the whole amounting to about $8.

Rain at last and the long-dry cisterns have been replenished. Now if it would only freeze up hard and then snow and stay cold a few weeks conditions would be fine.

Nixon Spurning 'Public Partisan Activities'

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has decided the best way to campaign for reelection during the next eight months is simply by being President.

So he is spurning "public partisan activities" even as he prepares to announce by mid-January that he is, indeed, seeking a second term in the White House.

The first public step in that candidacy came Monday, with Nixon's New Hampshire organization announcing that the President's name will be on the ballot in the Republican presidential preference primary March 7.

Nixon said Sunday night he will make his own announcement by Jan. 14. That presumably will come with the filing of a slate of 14 New Hampshire Republicans, pledged to support his renomination, as candidates for seats at the Republican National Convention.

The President said flatly that he will not campaign, in New Hampshire or in the other presidential primaries, and implied that he doesn't expect two Republican challengers, one on the right and one on the left, to cause him major political problems.

"I have decided that I will engage in no public partisan activities until after the Republican convention," Nixon said in a CBS interview. "The problems of the presidency, the problems of this office in which we sit, in this year 1972, are so great that it will not be possible to take time off for partisan politics."

The Republican game plan, clearly, is to let the corps of would-be Democratic challengers slug out the active campaign until late summer, while Nixon performs from the best of all stages, the presidency.

Party spokesmen and proxy campaigners certainly will miss no opportunity to draw the contrast, and to depict Nixon as above such political wrangling.

It is a scenario well adapted to Nixon's self-assessment, for the President said that his strong points are not rhetoric, showmanship, the attributes that create glamor, excitement and charisma.

"My strong point, if I have a strong point, is performance," he said.

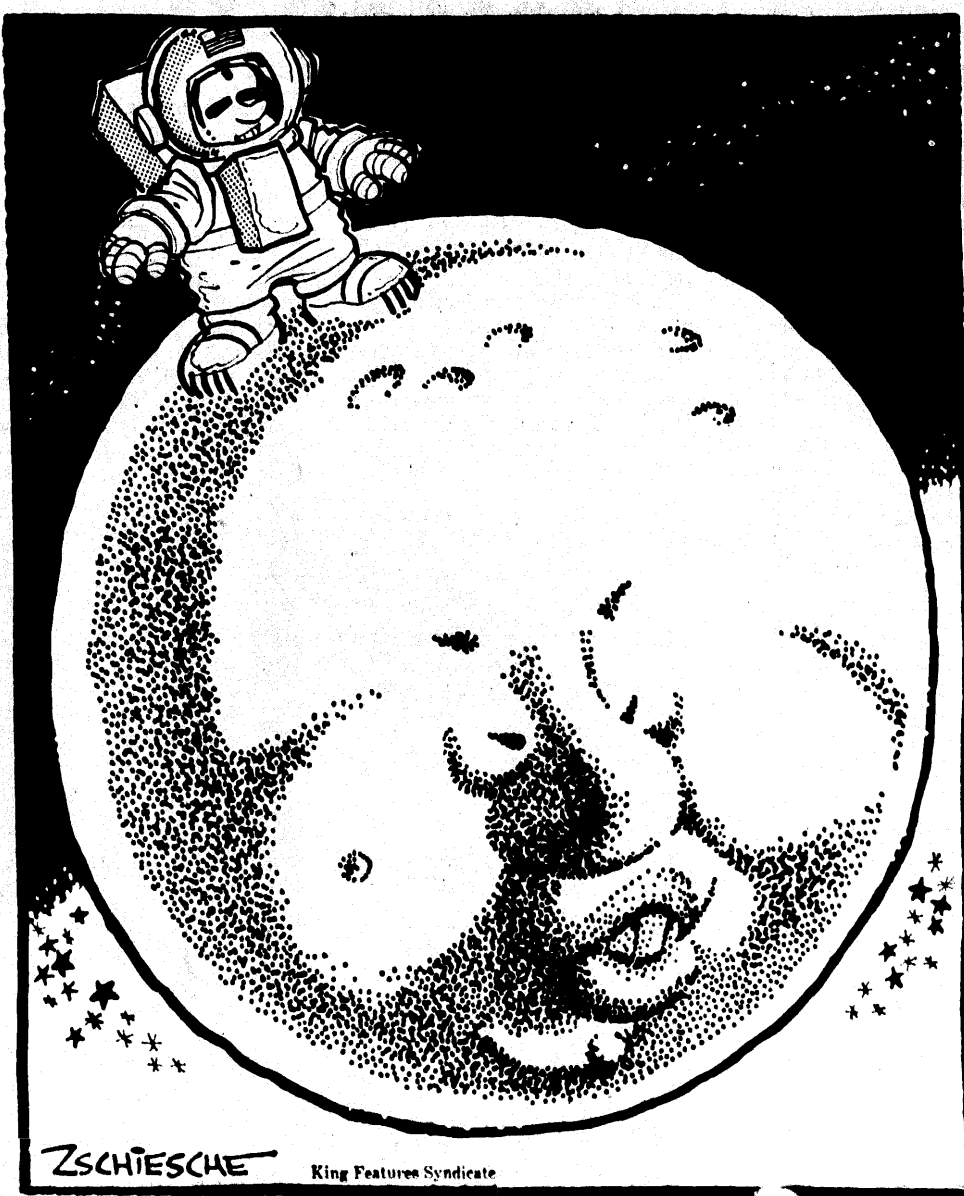

Talking of his forthcoming announcement, Nixon recalled that former President Lyndon B. Johnson decided against seeking reelection, but added: "I do not anticipate that events such as led President Johnson to his decision may affect my decision . . ."

Nixon has said he does not think the war in South Vietnam will be an issue. He said Sunday night the important thing will be whether the American people are convinced the President has done everything he can to end the war and to protect Americans.

Among the events that led Johnson out of the 1968 campaign was a surprise setback in the New Hampshire primary, where then-Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy captured more than 42 per cent of the vote to run a close second to the President, and won 20 of 24 national convention delegates.

In the coming New Hampshire primary, Nixon faces the challenge of two young Republican congressmen, Rep. Paul N. McCloskey Jr. of California on the liberal side, Rep. John M. Ashbrook of Ohio on the conservative flank.

Producers On Spot

Harsh Curbs On Prices And Profits

By RAY CROMLEY
WASHINGTON (NEA) — The men who developed President Nixon's economic strategy believe Phase II will work only if they hold down prices more firmly than wages.

Only in this way, they think, can labor finally be induced to hold back on inflationary wage demands after unions get what they believe they must have to "catch up" with past inflation. This relaxation in labor's demands, they're certain, is the key to Phase II success.

Only with the harshest hold-down on prices, these men are convinced, will consumers be willing to take their dollars out of savings and buy with sufficient vigor to get the economy moving briskly.

The strategists have a second objective. They intend to put such an intolerable squeeze on profits per item that producers will look for a loophole. One has been conveniently provided. A company's total profits can go up. They can go up greatly, despite the squeeze on profits per item, if a firm raises sales sufficiently. That puts the heaviest kind of pressure on companies to sell more.

Sharply increased sales, it should be noted, are a second essential for Phase II success. Only thus can unemployment be cut to tolerable levels and the Gross National Product boosted enough to bring in sufficient taxes to even come near to balancing the budget.

Unless the budget can be balanced, the economists believe, there can be no end to inflation. As is well known, Mr. Nixon now has sweetened the "increase the sales" route by devaluation of the dollar, aimed at making foreign goods more costly here and U.S. goods cheaper overseas.

Thus the plan aims at correcting some long-term causes of our economic difficulties.

For the long run, therefore, the planners want the big manufacturers to find the second loophole in the hold-down on profits per item, if prices are not raised, or in most cases if a brand new product is developed.

To reach this happy state, manufacturers must slash overhead sharply and expand their research or their utilization of already-existing research. For unless this nation's major producers can come up with a continuing program for improving products, developing new products and reducing costs at a more rapid pace, inflation cannot be brought permanently under control and devaluation will have been in vain.

In this objective, Mr. Nixon places great hopes in a new White House office of technical applications aimed at speeding the application of new research.

Ann Landers:

Compassion Urged For The Fat

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I want to thank you for the answer you gave the man who was so critical of fat wives. We have recognized alcoholics as people with an illness and in our hearts feel sorry for them and their families but they are no more ill than many people with overweight problems.

I know! For seventeen years I was fat. I went on all sorts of fad diets. I'd lose five pounds and in a month I'd gain fifteen. I hated myself for the way I looked. Buying a dress was torture. I was sure my family didn't love me because I looked like a baby hippo. My love for them or wanting to be a decent size made no difference. I ate incessantly. The more I ate, the nastier remarks, the children's innocent barbs and the uncouth jokes made me eat more.

Then one day I got nerve enough to join Tops. That was less than a year ago. Meeting with people who shared my problem gave me the strength to stick to a sensible diet. Today I am down to the weight set by my doctor and I've been there for six months. I love the way I look. My biggest thrill is when my husband calls me "Skinny." Thank God he loved me enough to stick around.

No one wants to be fat! So the next time you see a fat person, remember this, please. Be compassionate. — Former Fatty

Dear Form: My hat is off to you. And now I'm sure you will want to share your solution with others. I'll help. The address of the National Headquarters for Tops is: Tops Clubs, Inc., 3180 South 27th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53200

Dear Ann Landers: I am very much in love with a young man who says he is also in love with me, but I think he has flipped his corn popper. He is so moody and unpredictable that it's scary. One minute he can be sweet as honey, the next minute he is cold, unresponsive and sometimes cruel. If I ask him what's wrong he says, "Nothing, let me alone."

When we have an argument I'm the one who has to apologize, even when he is wrong. I'm afraid if I don't I'll lose him. When we first met he told me he was an oddball and I'd be sorry if I became involved with him. Why didn't I listen? He gave me fair warning. What's the matter with him?—Hooked

Dear Hooked: You know what's the matter with him. He's unstable, unpredictable, and punitive. He could also be on drugs. Now, what's the matter with YOU? Why do you tolerate, maybe even enjoy, the punishment? People who remain in situations that are frustrating and painful are themselves oddballs. Get some counseling, honey.

Dear Ann Landers: You goofed when you told the babysitter there wasn't very much she could do about "Mrs. Generosity," a woman who gave her the run-around when it came time to pay up and then stopped calling her. (Stock excuses . . . "I don't have change for a $20." and "I'll pay you next time.")

There IS something the girl can do to collect her money. Most states have small-claims courts. A teen-age babysitter, with the help of her parents, can take "Mrs. Generosity" to court and get a judgment for the money owed her for services.

It is important that young people be informed about their rights. This would have been a fine opportunity for you to have educated her. How come you didn't?—C. W. Akron Beacon Journal

Dear Ak: I didn't because I wasn't aware of it. I'm glad YOU were, however, and I thank you for calling it to my attention.

Implied Consent Law Signed By Ogilvie

CHICAGO (UPI) — Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie signed Illinois' implied consent legislation into law Tuesday making Illinois the last state in the nation to put the provision on its books.

But it will be six months before the measure becomes effective and perhaps longer before police are fully equipped to enforce it.

"This legislation is going to save lives," Ogilvie said as he signed the bill during ceremonies dedicating a new regional trauma center at Evanston Hospital.

as one of his major legislative accomplishments. He pushed for passage of such a bill for more than a year while the General Assembly fought over what details it should include.

As the fall session neared an end and the House and Senate still could not agree on a bill, Ogilvie made public a letter from U.S. Transportation Secretary John Volpe, saying inaction was threatening some $40 million in federal highway funds that were scheduled for distribution to Illinois.

Finally, as the session drew to a close, the General Assembly formed a conference committee to try to work out a compromise bill, incorporating both the House and Senate versions of an implied consent measure originally sponsored by Rep. Webber Borchers, R-Decatur.

That committee, according to one of its members, formulated at least eight different draft bills before it came up with one that the members would sign and recommend out "do pass" to their colleagues.

Two Key Provisions
That compromise measure cleared the House, 116-26, and the Senate, 39-1, in what were virtually the closing moments of the session.

The bill which Ogilvie signed contains two key provisions:
—A driver may be required to take a breath test for sobriety only after he is issued a traffic ticket.

A motorist who refuses to take the test will almost certainly have his license suspended for three months the first time and for six months each subsequent time, whether or not he is convicted of any other offense at a later date.

Only the secretary of state can allow such an individual to retain his license in a case of hardship.

The first of those provisions was inserted to calm the fears of Chicago Blacks and others that the law would be used for harassment. They said the breath test should be allowed only after an accident already had occurred.

Will 'Save Lives'
The second provision puts "teeth" into the law since simple refusal to take the test, whether or not a conviction later is obtained, is sufficient to suspend the driver's license. Further, the results of the test are admissible as evidence in any resulting prosecution.

Ogilvie said the new law and a system of trauma centers for treatment of major accidental injury, such as the one he dedicated, will work together to help save lives on the state's roads.

"The problem drinker deserves our sympathy and concern," Ogilvie said. "He deserves our help in conquering his affliction."

"But he does not deserve the freedom to operate a car on our public streets and highways."

EARLY BIRTHDAY VISIT TO ALFORD C. TRIBBLE
New Year's Day visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alford Clarence Tribble, 350 Pine street, were his sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Fleming, Decatur, and Mrs. James Nelson of Macon. The visit was an early surprise for Mr. Tribble's birthday, which falls on Friday, Jan. 7.

Ambucs Dance And Social Set For January

Included on the agenda of social events for the local Ambucs club is a family social-dance to be held Saturday, Jan. 29. The quarterly indoctrination-induction will also be held for club members sometime this month. More positive details will be available in advance.

The regular luncheon meeting will be held at noon Wednesday, Jan. 5, at Holiday Inn. The program will be announced at that time.

At last week's holiday meeting New Year's resolutions were heard from the members; and Schmaljohn, Pennell and Graus served as judges, bestowing top honors to Bussey Morris, who received an appropriate award.

Guests at last week's meeting were Jim Graus, Jr.; Rick Huckaby of WJIL; Steve Hills, Elm City Realty; and new member Ron Taylor was a "first timer" just out of the U.S. Navy.

Larry Schmaljohn picked up $44.50 from the attendance pot; Terry Lease got the Lucky Buck; Reg Cummings, identified the bulletin mistake; and Jim Patrick received $17.50 from the 50-50 drawing.

Spurs and/or branding irons went to those acquiring new members during the October-November drive: Bob Moss, Terry Heaney, Jim Flowers, Jim Graus, Harold Twyford, Bob Benton, Don Shumaker, Leo Woods, Larry Schmaljohn and Jerry Taylor.

BEREA HAS FAMILY NIGHT

ASHLAND — The Family Christmas potluck supper for the Berea Ag 4-H club was held at Berea church with a short business session and program following the meal.

Kathy Reiser spoke on Selecting a Balanced Diet for Your Dog. The club presented Marvin Martin a gift in recognition of his long service as leader in the club. Gifts were also made to current leaders Carl Becker and Richard Petefish. A grab-bag exchange was enjoyed at the close of the program.

Alcoholism affects more than 700,000 women in the United States, according to authorities.

TWO JACKSONVILLE MEN are shown above helping plan the annual Abraham Lincoln Boy Scout Council Recognition banquet to be Wednesday, Jan. 26. For the first time in the 52 year history the dinner will be in Jacksonville, set for 6:45 p.m. at McClelland Hall, MacMurray College campus. Above left to right, are Hugh Griffith, Springfield and Martin Newman, banquet chairman and Roger Cannell who represents the Honest Abe District, both of this city. The deadline for obtaining tickets is Jan. 21st. Each ticket is $4.50 available from the District chairman or Boy Scout Office, 730 East Vine street, Springfield. Tables of 8 are available for groups wishing to sit together.

PARENTS FILE SUIT IN DEATH OF DEAF CHILD

CHICAGO (AP) — The parents of a deaf mute youth killed in a fire at the Conrad Hilton Hotel on Jan. 25, 1970, have filed suit against the hotel corporation for $500,000 in damages.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kennedy of Morton Grove, a Chicago suburb, filed the suit Monday in U.S. District Court, charging the California-based hotel corporation with negligence.

Their son, Bruce, 17, was one of two deaf mutes to die in the fire. The youths were among a group of 41 students attending the Illinois School for the Deaf in Jacksonville. They were in Chicago for a visit and staying at the Hilton when the fire struck.

Kennedy's attorney said the federal suit is similar to one filed in Circuit Court in March 1970.

Regional Scout Executive George K. Myers of Oak Brook, Illinois, will be presenting the coveted Spencer Award for 1971 to the Abraham Lincoln Council. Mr. Myers has the responsibility for directing 70 Boy Scout Councils in Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan and Iowa.

Silver Beaver selection chairman Louis J. Kienzler of Springfield announces four Silver Beaver awards will be presented to veteran male Scouters and for the first time a Silver Fawn award will be presented a lady Scout.

Council president Rex A. Weber of Springfield will present several of the new District Awards of Merit.

The speaker for the program will be Dr. Thomas Stephens Haggai of High Point, North Carolina, familiar in the area by a ten-year airing over Jacksonville radio station WLD.

We're stirring up a "One-to-One" renaissance.

I'm William C. Rowland, president of General Telephone Company of Illinois.

Almost every business has, at times, been accused of being cold, impersonal, and unfeeling in its dealings with customers. Recognizing this, I'm pleased to tell you about some intensive work we are doing to improve service effectiveness and customer relations.

Having your respect is, of course, highly important to all of us at General Telephone. We have known this all along—and all of us have been working hard to earn this respect.

But, we feel there has been something missing... an underlying philosophy that would give continuity and greater meaning to our efforts to serve you better. So, we have established what we call a "One-to-One" philosophy, to guide General Telephone people in their dealings with you.

Adoption of this new philosophy means we've pledged ourselves to deal with each of our customers as individuals—recognizing that the heart of human communications and understanding lies in the relationship of one person to another.

"One-to-One" is intended to open wider a sincere and direct line of communication that will reflect the concern we have for our customers as individuals.

Our employees and our management, including myself, are trying hard to follow this credo. I'm convinced it will bring results that will benefit us all.

Next time you have reason to talk to one of us, see if you can't tell the difference.

Sincerely,

President

GTE

YOUR BIRTHDAY AND HOROSCOPE

By STELLA WILDER

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5—Born today, you are a highly active person whose career should keep pace with the energy poured into it. All your life you will know the kind of emotional security that can only come to one who knows that, where his work, play, or social life is concerned, output will equal input. You should not have to know the disappointment of putting forth great effort and talent with little return; for you, results come in fair measure and the promise of gain is always kept. Not one to allow yourself to be exploited for any reason, you prefer working for yourself at your own rate and in your own time. You will probably have recognized your talents at a relatively early age and so will have had the advantage over many of being able to prepare for the best use of those talents sooner than would otherwise have been possible. With little waste of time, you will begin to cultivate your own personal garden. There is no doubt that you will encounter some opposition to your plans along the way. Even family members will prove a barrier to the fulfillment of some of your dreams. For you have been gifted with a flair for living that has been denied most people, and it grants you a courage others lack. Others balk in fear for your safety; treat it as the kindness it is. To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Thursday, January 6
CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)—Hold down expenses as best you can. Purchases recently made may have to be returned in order to restore harmony at home.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Let ideas ripen in their own time. Be careful how you use rights recently granted you by another. Reconsider.
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21)—A good day for pulling out all the stops when it comes to moving your career into the next phase. Don't wait for the green light.
ARIES (March 22-April 20)—You might be wise to grant children their own way in matters that can do them no harm either way. Save your ammunition for larger issues.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—Take care that long-distance travel does not involve you in intrigue against those you love. Keep behavior on the up-and-up.
GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—Woo the muse while you still have time to profit by training. Your creativity needs an outlet so far missing in your life.
CANCER (June 22-July 23)—Don't be afraid to ask for whatever it is you don't see but wish to have. You may be in for a pleasant surprise.
LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—You may expect some opposition if you push too hard or too rapidly for the acceptance of your new plan of action. Take your time.
VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—Creative activities take your time today. Keep your opinion to yourself however, when it comes to judging another's efforts.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Take conservative action against those issues others seem to be pushing for all they're worth. Guard against temper displays.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)—Take care that you are not over-critical of yourself. You can do yourself great harm by not accepting yourself.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—You can hardly afford to slight one who may have a great deal to say about your future. Don't take a chance.

Women Now Guard, Probe Postal Thefts

LOS ANGELES (AP)—At the post office, mail chauvinism has joined such bygones as the six-cent stamp and the two-cent post card. Women, who've been sorting and totting the mail for years, are now guarding it as well and investigating postal thefts and frauds. The Postal Service has 52 women among the 1,300 security guards nationwide. The first was a 27-year-old former judo instructor, Kathryn Prime, who went to work in Philadelphia in December 1970. Los Angeles has nine women guards and is recruiting more. The need for women guards stems from the large number of women postal employees, said a Postal Service spokesman in Washington. The women guards are able to frisk women suspects, have access to women's rest rooms and keep track of demonstrators outside the buildings. Women also are becoming postal inspectors. The first two women inspectors in the 234-year history of the service were sworn in at ceremonies in Washington Dec. 17. The women train alongside the men during a three-week course at the University of Oklahoma. After graduation they earn the same pay as men—about $7,500 a year—wear blue uniforms, visor caps and a but-terfly tie and carry a .38-caliber pistol. "I hope I don't ever have to use it," said Darlene Willoughby, 30, one of 17 women guards in the San Francisco-Oakland area. She said authorities give the women the easier office duties and won't let them guard a high-value mail delivery alone. Al Burdick, chief security officer for the Los Angeles division, says he has no qualms about women guards. "In this capacity they work very well," Burdick said. "The male guards have never accompanied. In fact, they complement each other because if there is a purse to be searched the women do it. It softens the approach." GETTING A LIFT MANILA (UPI)—A local shoe manufacturer is coming up with three-inch high heeled shoes for diminutive Filipino men. Shoe manufacturer Santos Camara said he employs designers who adopt the latest in shoe styles. He was referring to the chunky high heeled shoes for men, the newest fashion in the United States.

Rushville Tops Lewistown 70-66 In Spoon Loop

RUSHVILLE — The host Rockets used slight scoring advantages in the second and fourth periods to pull to a 70-66 Spoon River victory over Lewistown Tuesday night.

Shooting 47 per cent from the field and taking a 32-25 edge over Lewistown on the boards, Rushville, now 10-1 overall and 2-1 in the Spoon, had Ron Woodside leading the attack with 21 points, followed by Mark Robertson with 17 and Bill Schramm with 12.

Leading scorer for Lewistown was Glanz with 30 points as the losers shot 46 per cent from the field.

Mountain Leads Perry To 78-54 Conference Win

PERRY — Perry overcame 24 personal fouls and scored a 78-54 Pike County Conference win over Brussels Tuesday night behind the 26-point scoring effort of John Mountain.

Mountain notched his total on 11 field shots and four free tosses. Gary Lanier and Rick Curfman followed in scoring for the winners with 14 and 12 points, respectively.

The hosts moved to a 15-12 first quarter advantage and upped its lead in each remaining quarter of play over Brussels, who could only connect on 14 of 29 shots from the 15-foot stripe.

The losers' scoring was led by Dan Eberlin with 24 markers and Mike Tepen with 11.

Perry picks up its first conference win against three previous losses and stands 4-5 overall.

Morgan County Grade Tourney Starts Saturday

The annual Morgan County Grade School Basketball Tournament will start Saturday at Salem Lutheran in Jacksonville and run through Jan. 15. Both lightweights and heavyweight competition will be held. The JOURNAL COURIER will again sponsor the tournament.

Only the heavyweight teams were rated, with the lightweight counterparts going in the same brackets. Our Saviours of Jacksonville has been rated first, followed by Manchester, Waverly, Alexander, ISD, Meredosia and Salem Lutheran. Our Saviours drew a first round bye.

Play starts Saturday with four games on tap. Waverly plays Meredosia at 1:30 and 3:00 and Manchester goes against Salem at 6:30 and 8:00.

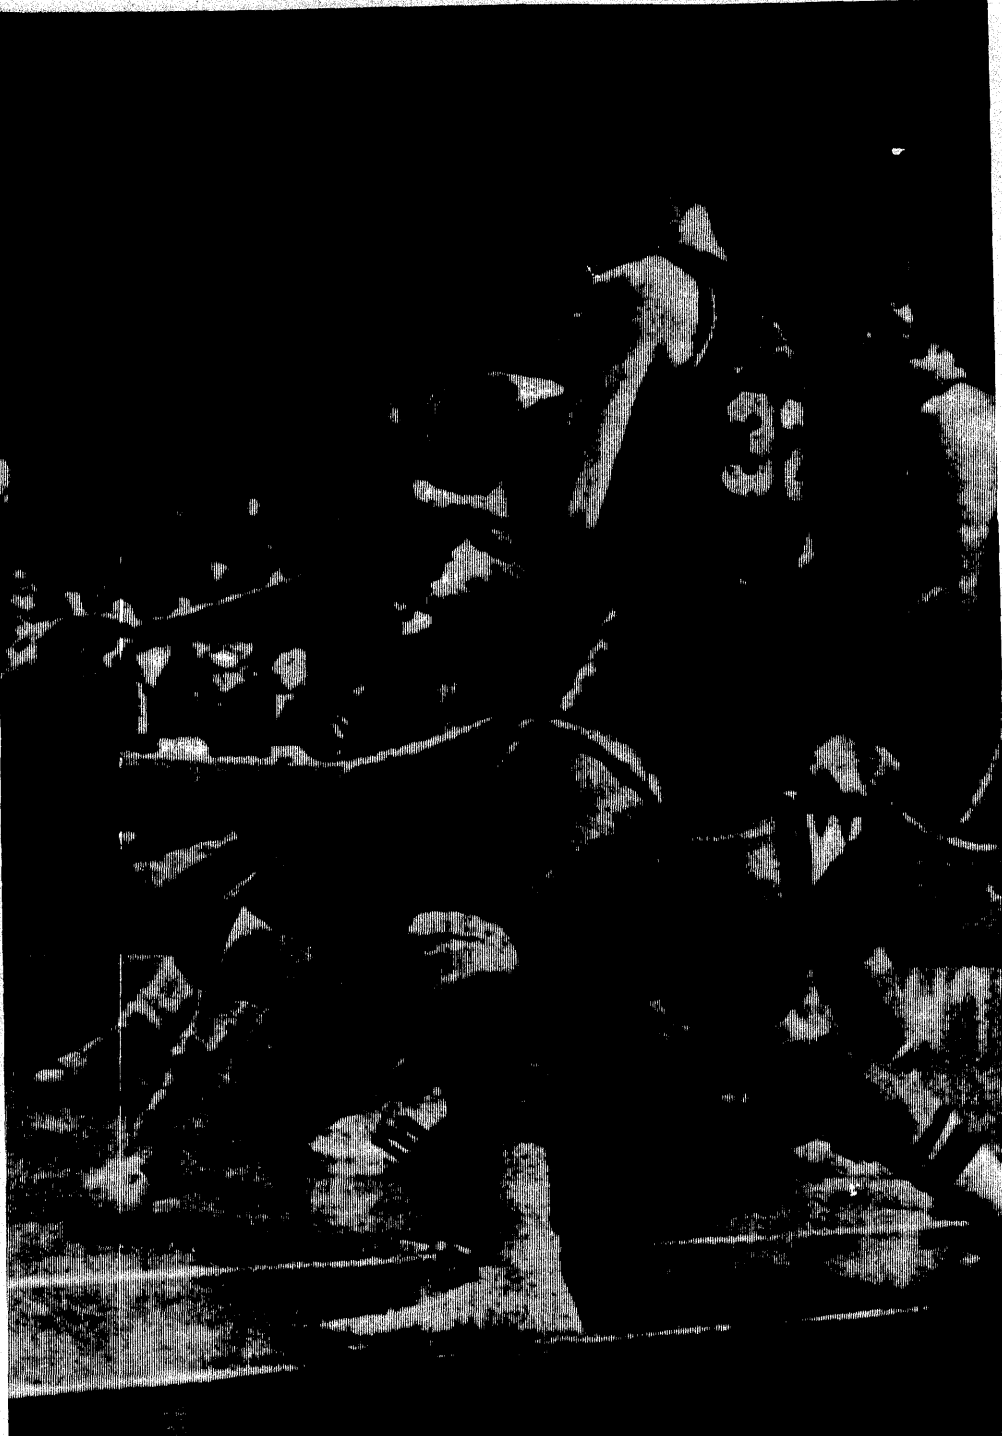

Monday night Alexander tangles with ISD at 6:30 and 8:00, with Our Saviours getting into the action Tuesday, against the winners of the Waverly-Meredosia tilts.

Dawdy was the leading scorer for North Greene with 19 points.

Leading the scoring column for Armstrong, now 4-2, were Ron York with 22 points, John Wittich with 18, Matt Fearson with 16 and Jay Dickman with 14.

Brockington NFL's Rookie Of The Year

NEW YORK (AP) — John Brockington of the Green Bay Packers, who shattered the National Football League rushing record for first-year running backs by grinding out 1,105 yards, was named Tuesday the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by The Associated Press.

The 6-foot-1, 225-pounder from Ohio State, who became only the fourth rookie in pro football history to gain 1,000 yards, was the overwhelming selection, amassing 43 1/2 of the 60 votes cast by a nationwide panel of sports writers and sportscasters.

Four times this season he rushed for more than 100 yards, including a 30-carry, 132-yard showing in Green Bay's 17-14 victory over the Chicago Bears Nov. 7, a feat which earned him Player of the Week honors.

"If you're running slow, you get hit—and if you're running fast, you're going to get hit," Brockington said in a basic explanation of his approach to the game, "so you might as well run fast and hard."

And tackle Francis Peay, comparing Brockington to teammates Donny Anderson and Dave Hampton, said John "doesn't hit the hole that much, quicker...but when he does, he just seems to explode through it."

It was the brutal battering for those extra yards, though, rather than break away explosiveness, that enabled Brockington to lead all National Conference rushers, topping runner-up Steve Owens of Detroit by 70 yards and falling just 28 short of league-leading Floyd Little of Denver.

Brockington, of Brooklyn, N.Y., rolled up his 1,105 yards in 216 carries for a 5.1 yard-per-rush average, also tops among NFC ground gainers with 100 or more attempts. His longest run from scrimmage covered 52 yards and he scored four touchdowns.

His output bettered by nine yards the rookie record set by Buffalo's Cookie Gilchrist in 1962. The other first-year 1,000-yarders were Cincinnati's Paul Robinson with 1,023 in 1968 and Beattie Feathers of Chicago with 1,004 back in 1934.

Plunkett, the 6-foot-3, 220-pounder from Stanford, the NFL's No. 1 draft choice by the Patriots who finished with a 2-12 record a year ago, guided them to a 6-8 mark this season, their best since 1966.

He was rated No. 6 among all AFC passers completing 158 of 328 attempts for a 48.2 per cent, 2,153 yards, a 6.58 yard-per-pass average and 19 touchdowns.

Armstrong 92-85 Victor Over NG

WHITE HALL — With four men in double figures, the Armstrong ninth graders pulled to a 92-85 victory over their North Greene hosts in a game played Tuesday night.

Leading the scoring column for Armstrong, now 4-2, were Ron York with 22 points, John Wittich with 18, Matt Fearson with 16 and Jay Dickman with 14.

Dawdy was the leading scorer for North Greene with 19 points.

UCLA, Marquette Still College Kings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — UCLA remained king of the college basketball hill after holiday tournament play but a couple of the Top Ten teams in The Associated Press weekly poll lost their footing.

The Bruins, defending national champions and winners of their own holiday classic, collected 41 of 42 first-place ballots of sports writers and broadcasters for 838 points and a healthy 92-point edge over runnerup Marquette, which received the other No. 1 ballot.

Marquette, which like UCLA is now 8-0 for the season, retained its No. 2 spot by winning the Milwaukee Classic.

But Southern California, which had been No. 5, and St. John's of New York, No. 9 last week, fell from the Top Ten after holiday losses. Southern Cal is No. 11 and owns a 7-2 record after being soundly whipped by Penn in the opening round of the Kodak Classic and St. John's is No. 17 and 8-2 after a loss in the Maryland Invitational finale.

Penn, which went on to win the Kodak, leaped from No. 14 to No. 6 and Louisville, runaway victor in the Holiday Festival, also moved up eight spots to No. 7.

Others in the Top Ten are 8-1 North Carolina, up one notch to No. 3 after winning the Sugar Bowl Tournament; 7-1 South Carolina, down one rung to No. 4 with a loss in the Quaker City Festival; 8-1 Indiana, up two to No. 5 as champion of the Old Dominion; 9-1 Long Beach State and 9-0 Virginia, which held onto their Nos. 8 and 9 spots with tourney titles, and No. 10 Ohio State which dropped from sixth when beaten by UCLA in the Bruin Classic final.

Following No. 11 Southern Cal in the lower bracket are Maryland; Marshall; Villanova; Southwestern Louisiana; Hawaii, the only other undefeated team at 9-0; St. John's; Brigham Young; Kentucky and Florida State.

The top 20 with first place votes in parentheses and total points on the basis of 20 for first, 18 for second, 16, 14, 12, 10, 9, 8, etc.:

1. UCLA (41)	838

Illini Look To Big Ten Play Next

CHAMPAIGN — Add Coach Harv Schmidt to the list of University of Illinois followers who are somewhat surprised at the 8-1 record of the Fighting Illini in preseason play this year.

"With five games on the road in December, the outlook wasn't too bright for this kind of start," Schmidt said while relishing the championship of the Gator Bowl Tournament in Jacksonville last week.

"If you're looking for reasons, you must mention that Bill Morris has been excellent at center, co-captain Jim Krelle is making all the big plays at guard, Nick Weatherspoon has been brilliant most of the time and Nick Conner has been consistently good at forward. And although our other guard position was a big question prior to the season, Garvin Roberson and Larry Cohen have been giving us good performances in alternating roles."

But Schmidt, always one to concentrate most of his efforts to the Big Ten Conference season isn't worried about a possible national ranking this week. All his worries center around a Saturday afternoon confrontation with a mysterious Northwestern team in Evanston (3 p.m. tipoff).

"We must have this one," Schmidt grimaced. "We can't afford a road loss early if we're going to stay in the conference race. With Michigan and Purdue at home the following week, we sure would like to be 3-0 at the semester break."

The Northwestern Wildcats have a 2-5 record. However, they have posted a pair of wins that speak highly of their potential — a 76-65 decision over once-ranked Ohio University and a 72-68 road victory over Rutgers. Also an overtime loss to highly ranked Hawaii team in Honolulu last week in the Rainbow Classic speaks highly for the team.

Current Illini players won't have any difficulty recalling an 85-70 loss to the Wildcats in Champaign last year.

No question that the emergence of sophomore center Bill Morris (6-9, 235, St. Louis) has keyed the fast start for Illinois. The only preseason loss came with Morris out of the lineup with illness — a 95-62 victory to Vanderbilt at Nashville.

After eight games, Morris is averaging 16.6 points and 3.5 rebounds per game and trails only All-American candidate Weatherspoon in both categories. At the Gator Bowl Tournament, Morris looked up at North Carolina State's Tom Burleson (7-4) and Florida's Doug Brown (7-0) and still scored 18 and 25 points in the two games and was named to the All-Tournament team along with Weatherspoon.

"I wouldn't trade Morris for any sophomore center in the country," said a smiling Schmidt after the Florida game.

Weatherspoon continues to be the dominant force in rebounding with an 11.6 average through the nine games. Although scoring in streaks, he still leads the team in point average (19.5) and has been spectacular in two games with a 34 point effort at Vanderbilt and a 28 point performance against Georgia in the Assembly Hall.

Another big factor has been the emergence of senior guard Jim Krelle (6-4, Aurora) as an excellent defensive player. Krelle played in the shadow of Rick Howat last season but has a 16.4 point average and a .55 shooting percentage from the field through his first nine games.

"It's great to see a player like Krelle reach his full potential and play excellent basketball through dedication and hard work," says Schmidt.

"And his team leadership this year has been obvious in our many close games."

"I think it's safe to say that this team has a lot of character," Schmidt continued. "We have battled back from deficits to past victories against Butler, Oklahoma, North Carolina State and Florida. And we had a near miss against Vanderbilt."

The Golden Bear was among the 78,000 persons who witnessed the Colts' 21-0 playoff loss Sunday to the Miami Dolphins. "I was a little divided," he said.

"I am a big Miami fan, but have a lot of friends in the Colt organization," Nicklaus, however, admitted at his lakeside home that he had been—and still is—interested in the possibility of being a pro football owner.

"We have been thinking more about a possible expansion team," he said. "Our price was more than 14 straight days."

Even Chess Champ Thrilled By Frazier

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bill Russell has seen a couple of basketball games in his time. He isn't easily impressed. Especially by what he sees on a basketball floor.

What he saw Monday night at Madison Square Garden impressed him though. Tremendously.

Bobby Fischer, the international chess grand master who meets Russia's Boris Spassky for the world championship soon, hasn't seen as many basketball games as Bill Russell.

But he's an even tougher nut to crack.

He doesn't get impressed about anything.

It was different Monday night. He showed up for his first basketball game in more than five years and he was impressed, too.

So were such otherwise cool cucumbers as Willis Reed, Earl "The Pearl" Monroe, Oscar Robertson and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. They all paid the highest praise one professional can pay another and all talked about the same man—Walt Frazier of the New York Knicks.

Walt Frazier played the kind of game Monday night kids like to dream about. Grown men, too.

What's more he picked the perfect time. With the game nationally televised and a capacity 19,588 on hand, Frazier ran off 13 straight points in the final 2:38, collaborated with Phil Jackson in a vital heart-stopping "steal" 20 seconds from the end and wound up receiving one of the most tumultuous ovations ever accorded any athlete at Madison Square Garden for leading the Knicks to a 101-90 win over the Milwaukee Bucks in a movie-like finish.

"Great! that's the only way to describe it," said Bill Russell, on hand to do the color commentary for national TV. "The last time I ever saw anything like it was in 1958 when Bob Pettit scored 51 points in the final game of the playoffs against us (Boston). They (St. Louis) beat us and he got 19 of their last 21 points."

Bobby Fischer blinked his eyes when he saw the Knicks gain possession 20 seconds from the end with the score tied 90-90. Earl Monroe passed off to Bill Bradley on his left. Bradley gave the ball to Frazier, who nearly lost it, but quickly regained control and began his move with eight seconds left.

Frazier killed five more seconds and then with only three remaining, he hit with a jumper and the whole place went plumb mad.

"You're used to complete quiet when you play," Dave DeBusschere said to Bobby Fischer in the Knicks' dressing room afterward. "What did you think?"

"Very exciting," Fischer said, giving the question proper thought before answering.

"What did you think of Frazier?" someone else asked the blond chess whiz.

"Extraordinary," Fischer said, much more quickly this time.

"Fantastic," put in DeBusschere. "He was just incredible at the end."

Willis Reed, sitting on the Knicks' bench with tendonitis, called Frazier's performance "unbelievable" and Monroe remarked "It's getting so, you sort of expect it from him."

Oscar Robertson, who vainly tried to keep Frazier from getting off his game-winning shot, said, "You can't take it away from him, he played a great game" and Jabbar agreed "he hit some tough shots there at the end." Tough wasn't really the word.

The Bucks were out front the whole game, once by as much as 13 points, and the Knicks never led until Frazier's final shot.

"I thought it would hit the rim," said the Knicks' bearded backcourt dynamo who wound up with 31 points for the night.

"I had some doubts about that last one because all my shots were a struggle. I was pulling to the left or right all night."

Why, because of the pressure?

"It could've been," laughed Frazier. "I know the game was just another game in the standings but I was a little tight. Really, I was embarrassed the way I was playing. I knew it was a national televised game and my parents were watching in Atlanta, Georgia. I wanted to play well but I realized I wasn't. I had only six points at the half."

Walt Frazier got a little better as the game went on. Enough so that he got a rise out of Bill Russell. That seldom happens. Enough so that he also got one out of Bobby Fischer.

And that simply never happened before.

Wolves Coast To 80-54 Win Over Louisiana

LOUISIANA, Mo. — Pleasant Hill led after every stop and coasted to a decisive 80-54 non-loop victory over Louisiana, Mo., Tuesday night.

The Wolves raced to a 44-26 halftime bulge and eased through the final 16 minutes, outscoring the hosts 25-10 in the last frame.

The winners held Louisiana to only 19 field goals while bucketing 29 themselves. From the charity stripe, Pleasant Hill hit a very respectable 22 of 28 for 79 per cent and Louisiana dropped in 16 of 26 for a cooler 61 per cent.

Steve Shireman was the contest's high scorer as he canned 26 points for the winners. Gayle Putterbaugh helped out with 18 as Sonny Sanson and Greg Tolbert added 14 and 11 markers, respectively.

For Louisiana, Jordan threw in 17 counters and Davis added 16.

Pleasant Hill ups its season record to 4-5.

Unbeaten Birds Notch 66-56 Win Over Gillespie

PIASA — Southwestern, down by two at the first stop, roared back to take the second period 23-12 and held on to count a 66-56 South Central Conference victory over Gillespie Tuesday night.

Gillespie hit 19 of 50 floor shots for 38 per cent, but the winners had nine more tries and netted 23 baskets for 37 per cent.

Ray Taylor hit for 18 markers to lead the Birds' scoring while Charles Huebener helped out with 10.

For Gillespie, Mark Weyen took game scoring honors in a losing cause with 21 points. Dave Wilder added 14 and Craig Dussman 11.

Southwestern ups its slate to a perfect 11-0 and stands 4-0 in conference action.

Corporation Has Redskin Tickets In Sales Deal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington Redskins fans who want to buy season tickets only have to purchase a corporation.

In Monday's Washington Post, a small ad read: "Corporation for sale! Liabilities—zero. Assets—large block of Redskins season tickets."

Both the corporation, a branch of a mini-conglomerate that is being dissolved, and a spokesman for it prefer to remain anonymous.

"We don't want any publicity that would result in a line around the block of people wanting to buy one or two tickets," the spokesman said.

"Since it is illegal to sell or transfer tickets, we can't sell them one at a time. The tickets are the sole property of the corporation and when you buy the corporation you buy the tickets."

The other assets of the company were bought by out-of-town residents who were not interested in the block of more than 10 season tickets. The spokesman, who said his company acquired the tickets the same way it is getting rid of them, said a decision will be made after all bids are in.

Nebraska Chief Invites Nixon To Give Trophy

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Gov. J. J. Exon said Tuesday he has extended an invitation to President Nixon to come to Lincoln and present the Nebraska Cornhuskers with The Associated Press national championship football trophy.

The Cornhuskers won the trophy for the second consecutive year on a unanimous vote of the AP's board of sportswriters and broadcasters following a 13-0 season which ended last Saturday with a 38-6 rout of Alabama in the Orange Bowl.

"I met with President Nixon last September in Washington and invited him out to present the trophy at that time," explained Exon. "He just smiled and told me we would have to win it first."

"Now we have, and we'd like the President to present it."

Exon said he did not know when he would receive a reply to his invitation which he said was mailed Tuesday.

Nixon appeared in Lincoln last year after the Cornhuskers won the 1970 championship to congratulate Coach Bob Devaney and present the school with a plaque.

Hawkins Carries Suns To 112-108 Win Over Bulls

CHICAGO (AP) — Connie Hawkins, who earlier was involved in a free-for-all with Chicago's Bob Love, scored five points in the final minute and picked off a key interception Tuesday night to lead Phoenix past the Bulls 112-108 in a roughly played National Basketball Association game.

The Suns win, their first over the Bulls this season in four contests, snapped a seven-game Chicago victory streak which had tied a club record.

Phoenix reserve Mel Counts, who finished with 18 points, stopped Love in the final quarter with only three free throws.

Phoenix grabbed the lead to start the second quarter and led all the way until the final minutes of the third quarter when the Bulls, behind Love, staged a brief comeback.

Phoenix reserve guard Dennis Layton along with Counts moved the Suns into a commanding 103-91 position with 4:04 to play. The Bulls, however, behind Chet Walker's seven straight points, moved to 107-104 with 1:29 left.

But, Hawkins grabbed a pass, stuffed a basket and added a free throw to put the game out of reach.

Devening Scores 38 But Calhoun Defeated 77-63

HARDIN — Griggsville's balance offset a 38-point outburst by Phil Devening Tuesday night as the Tornadoes downed Calhoun 77-63 in a Pike County Conference tilt.

Griggsville, holding a 54 per cent to 32 per cent shooting edge and a 38-31 board advantage, led 20-17 and 41-32 at the first two breaks and was up by at least 11 the rest of the way. The Tornadoes had 21 turnovers to only ten by Calhoun.

Brad McCulloch paced the balanced attack by the winners with 18 points. Devening closed out his sparkling performance with 15 of Calhoun's 17 points in the final eight minutes.

Griggsville is now 5-5 on the year to Calhoun's 3-6.

Bradley, Harris Lift NIU Past Indiana, 85-71

DE KALB, Ill. (AP) — Northern Illinois, led by sophomores Jim Bradley and Billy Harris, rolled over Big Ten contender Indiana 85-71 Tuesday night despite a 30-point outburst by Hoosier Jobie Wright.

The Huskies, who went into the game with a 102.5 average, second only to top-ranked UCLA, took a 10-3 lead in the first 2½ minutes and never were threatened as they picked up their seventh victory in eight games.

Northern rolled to a 43-33 halftime edge and then boosted the advantage to 63-42 in the first eight minutes of the second half.

With 3:40 left to play, fifth-ranked Indiana rallied behind Wright to close within 11 points at 75-64 but two more scores by the 6-foot-9 Bradley put the game well beyond the Hoosiers' reach.

Bradley, who collected 12 points in the first half, topped Northern with 24 points while Harris, who had 14 in the first half, finished with 18.

Wright collected 21 of his points in the second half but couldn't prevent the Hoosiers from stumbling to their second loss against eight victories.

President Richard Nelson of Northern Illinois lifted a ban against playing the national anthem. The ban had been placed last Dec. 4 because of the objections by black students on playing the song before games.

There were no incidents Tuesday night although Northern's six black cheer leaders walked off the floor and most of the black students refused to stand during the playing of the anthem.

There was, however, a standing ovation from the white students in the capacity crowd of 4,422.

Princeton Rips Michigan 91-82

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Brian Taylor and Ted Manakas teamed for 41 points Tuesday night to lead Princeton to a 91-82 win over Michigan.

Each team took the lead six times in the first moving game, but Manakas' two free throws with 4:34 gone in the second half put Princeton ahead to stay at 59-57. Later in the half, Princeton sealed the Wolverines' loss by outscoring them 14-1 and drawing away to a 74-64 lead.

Taylor topped Princeton's scorers with 21 points but had to sit out much of the second half due to foul trouble. He poured in most of his points in the first half, enabling Princeton to take a 48-46 halftime lead.

Michigan forward Henry Wilmore, in his first start since suffering a knee injury two weeks ago, led all scorers with 29 points, despite a tight Princeton defense. Wilmore hit eight of 13 from the floor and was 13 of 14 in free throws.

Princeton is now 7-2 for the season. Michigan has lost four of its last five games and is 5-5.

Alan Dick of Indiana caught 25 passes in Big Ten games in 1971 and five of them were good for touchdowns.

U.S., Aussies To Meet Yearly In Tennis Play

CLEVELAND (AP) — "This is the greatest thing since the Davis Cup Challenge Round of 1964," said a tennis official Tuesday in announcing the United States and Australia would meet annually in women's team tennis competition starting this summer.

Bob Malaga, executive director of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, said the matches would be played in Cleveland in even-numbered years and in Australia in odd-numbered years. He said the 1973 matches have been tentatively set for Sydney.

"Cleveland has the best history of handling events of this kind of any city," said Malaga.

He added, "The competition would be similar to the Wightman Cup matches held annually between the United States and Great Britain women's teams."

In recent years, Cleveland has been the host U.S. city in odd-numbered years for the Wightman Cup. The British host the matches in even-numbered years.

"This is not a one-year deal," emphasized Malaga. "Next summer will just begin the competition, which will run indefinitely, just like the Wightman matches."

"There will be a cup, similar to either the Davis or Wightman Cup. It will be symbolic of winning the competition. I'm excited about it and so is everyone else in the USLTA," Malaga said.

Dates and site for the matches will be announced in about a week, Malaga said. Players, non-playing captains and officials will be named in several months.

The event could set up a meeting of two of tennis' brightest young women stars, Chris Evert of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Evonne Goolagong of Australia.

Miss Evert skyrocketed to fame after leading the U.S. to a Wightman Cup victory over Great Britain last summer at age 16. Miss Goolagong stunned the tennis world by winning the Wimbledon tournament last year.

Behagen Sparks Minnesota Over Loyola By 84-59

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—Ron Behagen fired in 25 points and pulled down 17 rebounds Tuesday night in powering the Minnesota Gophers to an 84-59 college basketball victory over Loyola of Chicago.

Clyde Turner added 21 points and Jim Brewer contributed 16 and 11 rebounds for the Gophers, who closed out their non-conference season with a 6-3 record plus two exhibition victories.

Chris Walker lead Loyola, outscored 59-22 with 14 points. LaRue Martin, who was averaging 22.5 points a game with 16 rebounds, fouled out with 10:38 to play.

The Ramblers fell to 6-4 for the season.

FIELD GOAL RECORD KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Jan Sienerud's 48-yard field goal against the Vikings in the 1970 game is the all-time Super Bowl field goal record.

Nixon Wants U.S. Top Shipbuilder

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon said Tuesday he was trying to put the United States back at the top in shipbuilding.

Two days in advance of talks with Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato—whose country is the world's No. 1 shipbuilder—Nixon announced a new spur in government subsidies for shipbuilding.

"He told a crowd of about 2,000 workers that their employer, the National Steel and Shipbuilding Co., will build three new tankers costing $54.6 million under the expanded subsidy program."

Nixon spoke from a hastily erected stand beneath a cluster of five-story cranes at the National Steel shipyard. He flew here by helicopter from his ocean-front home at San Clemente, 60 miles away.

The President said that when he took office he found that World War II allies as well as enemies were building ships at such a rate that they were "driving us into a second class position."

Nixon said competition from former wartime foes was welcomed "but it means that we've got to do better."

Andrew E. Gibson, Assistant Secretary of Commerce for maritime affairs, later told reporters that this country had slipped to fifth position among world shipbuilders.

Legislation was proposed by Nixon and enacted last year that set up a 10-year, $7-billion ship construction subsidy program to make U.S. shipyards more competitive.

After his 10-minute speech, Nixon mingled with the workers and signed the hard hats of about half a dozen with a black marker pen.

Nixon will meet with the Japanese prime minister at the Western White House on Thursday and Friday.

The Nixon-Sato meetings, because of trade and other differences that recently have marred U.S.-Japanese relations, are expected to be perhaps the most contentious of the six conferences the President has been holding with allied leaders prior to his trips to Peking and Moscow later this year.

Nixon told newsmen that he planned to deliver his State of the Union message to Congress as 12:30 p.m. EST Jan. 20 because congressmen preferred the mid-day time.

"Congress is led to believe that the State of the Union should be a speech to them and not just to the country," he said.

"This year, an election year, it will be difficult enough to work with Congress, so I believe the speech should be one made to the Congress. Of course, it will be televised. But Congress will not have the feeling it is being used to talk over the heads of them to the country."

Administration officials noted that the Defense Department approved on Tuesday contracts for construction and charter of nine 25,000-ton tankers. Four of the ships costing $66 million will be built at the Todd Shipyards in San Pedro, Calif. The other five, costing $90 million, will be built at the Bath Ironworks at Bath, Me.

Shipbuilders cheered Nixon's announcement of the contract, but a spokesman for National Steel said there was no assurance that workers released in recent months would be called back.

MONROVIA, Liberia—Liberian President William R. Tolbert, Jr., presents America's First Lady, Mrs. Richard Nixon, with the nation's highest decoration, a cookie-sized medallion known as the Grand Cordon of the Most Venerable Order of Pioneers during ceremony here Tuesday. Mrs. Nixon, representing the U.S. President at the inaugural of Liberia's 19th Chief Executive, planned to depart for Ghana Wednesday for a two-day goodwill tour of the former British colony. Education Budget Has Lowest Increase Ever CHICAGO (AP) — The Illinois Board of Higher Education Tuesday approved a fiscal 1973 operating budget of $571.3 million, a seven per cent boost over the year before.

The increases and some of the allocations, however, drew outspoken criticism from the heads of the two largest universities in the state.

Dr. John E. Corbally Jr., president of the University of Illinois, claimed it was "ridiculous" to expect the university to meet new and expanded programs without any new funds.

"It leads the people of Illinois to believe falsely," Corbally said, "that the universities can meet new needs without new income."

The approved budget represents a $36.6 million boost over the 1972 spending and revenue plan. Board members said it was the smallest increase ever.

James Brown, chief of board staff at Southern Illinois University, told the board his school is being asked to absorb $3.2 million in new programs this year on top of $4.1 million last year, without any additional funds.

In addition to the new budget, the board gave its approval to a planning grant and construction of noninstructional facilities at two state universities.

An additional $16 million from Federal Health Manpower Funds and Federal Indirect Resources also is included in the budget, which brings it to a total of $587.3 million.

The board assigned highest priority to new and expanded health education programs, the statewide system of community colleges, full funding of the Illinois State Scholarship program, new programs for undergraduate instruction, merit salary increases for university employees and the state's newest four-year universities.

Governors State in Park Forest, South and Sangamon State in Springfield.

The board approved a planning grant of $400,000 to the Illinois Junior College Board for planning and design of a comprehensive new facility at State Community College of East St. Louis.

Harrisburg 8 Trial Moved Back Tuesday

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The trial of the Rev. Philip Berrigan and seven other anti-war activists has been moved back from Jan. 10 to at least Jan. 17 by U.S. District Court Judge R. Dixon Herman.

At a court hearing Tuesday, Herman said the postponement was due to a delay in assembling a jury pool and to a pending defense motion before the 3rd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals for a pretrial hearing on electronic surveillance.

The so-called "Harrisburg Eight" defendants are charged with conspiring to kidnap presidential adviser Henry Kissinger, raiding East Coast draft boards, and conspiring to blow up heating tunnels in Washington, D.C.

William S. Lynch, deputy assistant attorney general, had pushed for the Jan. 10 opening date.

Former U.S. Attorney Gen. Ramsey Clark, one of the defense lawyers, agreed to an early trial date, but added: "The pretrial hearing is essential to the rights of the defendants."

Hanrahan Says He Is Looking At Signatures

CHICAGO (AP)—Edward V. Hanrahan, Cook County state's attorney, said Tuesday he is conducting his own investigation of the nominating petitions of the four candidates seeking the state's attorneys post — including those filed on his own behalf.

Hanrahan told a news conference that his office began investigating complaints that alleged nominating petitions submitted for the four candidates contained large numbers of forged signatures, non-registered voters and other irregularities.

Hanrahan declined comment on the details of his investigation.

Hanrahan was dumped from the Democratic slate in December and is opposed in the March primary by the Democratic Party's new candidate for the post, former Judge Raymond K. Berg; Donald Page Moore, an independent candidate; and Republican candidate C. Bernard Carey.

Berg, Moore and Carey said they welcomed the investigation.

The Independent Voters of Illinois, also conducting a probe into the petitions, failed in an attempt to delay a hearing on its objections to petitions filed by Berg.

Judge Bernard M. Decker of U.S. District Court, however, indicated he would grant the delay if the postponement is not authorized by a county electoral board.

Loan

The prime lending rate is considered a key interest rate since most other corporate interest rates are scaled upward from it.

Consumer interest rates, however, are not likely to be affected. "Installment loan rates are traditionally stickier than the prime rate on the theory that the consumer is not as knowledgeable about changes in interest rates as businessmen, and is less likely to shop around," said Irwin Kellner, associate economist at Manufacturers Hanover Trust.

Also, he pointed out, consumer loan demand is much stronger than business loan demand.

Theoretically, a prime rate cut should spur the economy by stimulating corporate expansion. But Kellner noted that "a 1/4 per cent cut in the prime rate by itself will not induce anybody to borrow if he weren't thinking of borrowing in the first place."

"And right now," Kellner added, "economists are more bullish on the economy than businessmen."

A major factor behind the prime rate cuts has been recent action by the Federal Reserve, which has been pumping huge sums of money into the banking system through the purchase of government securities.

This is one of the main reasons short term money rates have been falling. It was in order to be more responsive to fluctuations in these rates, that Irving Trust, Citibank, and last week Banker's Trust adopted a "floating" prime rate directly linked to those money rates.

The stock market showed little reaction Tuesday to the prime rate cuts. Analysts said the action had been anticipated.

Judge Major Dies Tuesday At Hillsboro

HILLSBORO, Ill. (AP) — Earl Major, a senior Circuit Court of Appeals judge and a former federal judge in the Southern District of Illinois, died Tuesday of a heart attack in a Hillsboro hospital.

Major, who would have been 85 Wednesday, entered the hospital Saturday, his secretary said.

He was elected to four terms in the U.S. House of Representatives from Illinois between 1923 and 1933 after serving as state's attorney for Montgomery County.

Then President Franklin D. Roosevelt appointed Major as a federal judge in the state's Southern District in 1933. He was elevated to the Federal Appeals Court bench in Chicago four years later and in 1948 was named chief judge of the Circuit Court of Appeals.

Major resigned as chief judge in 1954 and from 1956 to his death was a senior Circuit Court of Appeals judge. In that capacity he presided over court cases in Illinois, Louisiana and Florida.

Services are scheduled for Thursday in Hillsboro.

Major is survived by his widow, Ruth, two daughters, two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

72 TAX GUIDES FOR SALE HERE AT POST OFFICE

A booklet that gives information on how to fill out federal tax returns will be sold at all Post Office facilities in the Jacksonville area according to Postmaster Joseph S. Shanahan.

Your Federal Income Tax was written by the Internal Revenue Service and contains many examples to illustrate how the tax law applies to actual situations. A special feature of the booklet is the sample, filled-in return, Form 1040, keyed to pages where explanations can be found for each entry on the return.

The 160-page booklet is on sale January 4, 1972, and costs 75 cents a copy.

"By selling this booklet at post offices in the Jacksonville, Illinois, area we are offering a convenient service to our customers," Postmaster Joseph S. Shanahan states. "We are participating in a nationwide program to make the tax booklet available to the public in 15,000 post offices."

Another popular IRS publication Tax Guide for Small Business, will also be sold for 75 cents a copy at the Jacksonville Post Office.

This publication answers many questions businessmen have about federal income, excise and employment taxes and also contains a 1972 tax calendar with due dates for various tax and information returns and payments.

JAPAN TO LIMIT TEXTILE EXPORTS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Japan has agreed to limit exports of wool and man-made fiber textiles to the American market over the next three years.

David Kennedy, U.S. ambassador-at-large, and Japanese Ambassador Nobuhiko Ushiba signed the agreement Monday. It is retroactive to Oct. 1, 1971.

other movement advocating forcible overthrow of the government.

McCarthy said he considers the oath defective, inapplicable to a presidential primary and unconstitutional.

Muskie also has entered the March 21 Illinois primary, but he will concentrate on two other first, heading for New Hampshire Thursday to enter that contest and to Florida Friday.

Muskie, 56 and 12 years a senator, said he seeks the presidency "not merely to change presidents, but to change the country."

"I intend to lead—to ask you to make America what it was to Abraham Lincoln—the last best hope of mankind."

"I intend to ask you to try—and to be willing to try again if we fail," Muskie said. "And I intend to ask every one of you to pay a fair share of the costs of a decent society."

Muskie did not mention his Democratic rivals, and said "it would be foolish to blame all the nation's ills on the present administration."

"But government can lead. It can be truthful. And if our present leadership had been candid with the country, if they had been straightforward, we could have done far more than we have."

"We were promised an end to the war. We have been given a continuing war...We have been given 6 per cent inflation, 6 per cent unemployment...We have been given rising crime..."

"An administration that has so failed us in the past cannot take us to the future."

"So this is what I offer and ask of you...Not a promise to solve our problems overnight, but a commitment to make a new beginning."

Sen. Robert J. Dole of Kansas, the Republican national chairman, said in a statement: "Sen. Muskie's statement and his approach to the campaign seek to demean the American people by undermining their respect for their country and their government..."

Sen. Muskie was the key representative of the previous Democratic administration during one of the worst periods in the nation's history."

SENATOR TAFT WITHDRAWS AS FAVORITE SON

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Sen. Robert Taft, R-Ohio, said Tuesday he is withdrawing as a favorite-son candidate for President and now hopes for a unified delegation pledged to President Nixon.

Last May, Taft said he would be a favorite-son candidate—a stand-in for the renomination of President Nixon. He said he made the move "in the event that he (Nixon) decided against permitting his name" on the Ohio ballot in the May primary.

"The President's indication on television and other current reliable information, now makes it substantially clear that Mr. Nixon will allow his name to appear on the Ohio ballot as a pledged candidate for the presidential nomination."

Air Passengers Injured During Bad Turbulence

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Twenty-five persons were injured, some seriously, when a National Airlines 747 with 334 persons aboard ran into severe air turbulence Tuesday on a flight here from Miami, Fla.

Some of the injured were thrown to the ceiling then dropped back onto seats and the floor. All were treated aboard the plane and 13 were taken to hospitals when the plane landed safely at Los Angeles International Airport.

"Everything went flying," said one passenger, Marsha Draluck, 39, of Santa Monica, Calif. "People's shoes were torn off their feet. Meals were being served and there was food going everywhere."

Injured passengers had broken legs, cuts, gashes, head injuries and bruises, hospital officials said.

National spokesman Brad Williams said the huge jetliner ran into "clear air turbulence" at about 11:30 a.m. west of Houston.

Clear air turbulence is particularly troublesome for high-flying jets because it occurs in skies free of storm clouds and usually is encountered without warning.

The plane dropped suddenly, he said, and although passengers had been told shortly before to fasten seat belts, some had not and were thrown toward the ceiling.

Four stewardesses were among the injured.

"I think the whole thing lasted about three seconds," said one stewardess, Yvonne Marlett, 20, of Miami, Fla.

The front of the plane was little affected, but Miss Marlett said she "looked down the aisle and saw people falling out of their seats." She said she flew up to the ceiling, hit her head and fell back onto a seat.

Stewardesses said two doctors who were passengers helped treat the injured.

Street originally meant a paved way and came from the Latin stratum.

THE DOCTOR SAYS 'Speed Pill' User Needs Help

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.
Dear Dr. Lamb — If a person has taken amphetamines for a long time and then stops, can his memory be affected? If it causes psychiatric effects, what are they and how are they cured?
Don't say go to a psychiatrist. My husband won't let me because he doesn't think anything is wrong with me and he doesn't want the expense of a psychiatrist.
What can I do to help myself? I need help — and know it.
Dear Reader — Yes, you do need help. Recognizing that fact is half the battle. Amphetamine belongs to the "speed-up" drug group. One of this group, technically known as methamphetamine hydrochloride, is commonly called "speed." These stimulants are useful to combat depression, but that action wears off in a few days after the medicine is taken. They are also useful in combating narcolepsy, repeated sleeping at inappropriate times. Sometimes they are used to help people diet and in treating hyperactive children and senility.

Amphetamine releases a type of adrenalin from the nerve endings and stimulates the brain. This causes the heart to beat faster and harder, nervousness, irritability, insomnia and loss of appetite.
Weight loss is common. So are delusions, hallucinations and even violence. When the use of the drugs is discontinued after prolonged use, severe depressions can occur.

Yes, some researchers state that prolonged use can cause brain damage. Brain cell damage has been described in animal studies and in Japanese men. Japan had an epidemic of overuse of "speed" after World War II, with serious effects on the users. Loss of memory for recent events and other evidences of abnormal thought process occur.
Some people begin taking these medicines to reduce, and continue them long after any usefulness they might have had in dieting.
I am at a loss to tell you what to do for yourself. I don't know how much you take, how long you have been on the habit or how it has affected you. Obviously, the best thing to do would be to see a psychiatrist. If you have been on large amounts of the stuff for a long time, it might even be necessary to be withdrawn under supervision. If you do not have any evidence of severe difficulty and have not been taking them a long time, the best approach would be to taper off and then quit. Physical activity and support from your husband might help. I wish we had an organization like Alcoholics Anonymous for people like you.
If you can't do anything else, write to the National Clearinghouse for Drug Abuse Information, P.O. Box 1701, Washington, D.C. 20013, and see if they can suggest a community service in your area. Another possible source of information would be the American Social Health Assn., 1740 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10019.
Please send your questions and comments to Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Lamb cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Careless Parkers Create Pet Peeve

Business Mirror

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — A final review of the independent economic forecasts that have proliferated since fall shows a consensus for tremendous gains during 1972, on the order of $100 billion in growth.

From reading the words you might not guess that this is the outlook. Economic forecasting is to some extent a game of chance.

Forecasters are hedging their words if not the figures. Political or monetary problems might confuse everything. Continued unemployment might sour the people. Controls might depress.

Moreover, a sense of propriety causes the wording to be somewhat at variance with the figures being offered. Now everyone will share in the advance-unemployment is seen remaining above 4.5 per cent—so the word "boom" is inappropriate.

Perhaps as daring as any, therefore, is the forecast by Argus Research, upon whom much of the investment community relies heavily. This is the message delivered to Argus subscribers on New Year's Eve: "For the first time since 1966, the conventional wish for a prosperous new year has a strong chance of coming true in 1972."

At the same time, clients of Lionel D. Edie, economic consultants, were told that "chances of 1972 being an altogether favorable business year are high."

Rinfret-Boston Associates summed up its many forecasts in four words. "The emphasis is positive," and advised industrialists to learn from past experience and not be caught short-handed or without financing.

Specifically, R-B advised them to cultivate multiple credit sources so as to have the funds with which to expand, and to study their labor supply in order to assure themselves of help when needed.

But isn't there plenty of labor available? "Many areas of the U.S. do have material unemployment," Rinfret says, "but on investigation the unemployed frequently prove to be either unuseable or unavailable."

There were few exceptions to the consensus. Eliot Janeway smiled and wished everyone a Merry Christmas before dissembling. His new year forecast: "I am lowering my sights on the U.S. economy—for the second time this year."

Janeway says he is well aware "that I am entering a seemingly impractical and certainly lonely dissent to the overwhelming majority of sophisticated financial opinion..." he is aware too that a lonely position draws the spotlight.

Based largely on the outlook for a big advance in 1972, the money advisers are confident that a fully invested position is the smart one.

Why should we be interested in what these men say? Haven't they been wrong before?

Of course they have, although some of them have areas of expertise in which they are often right. What is important about their forecasts and advice is that they are listened to, often in very high circles, and often acted upon. Their opinions are, therefore, as important as some facts.

Forecasts sometimes are self-fulfilling. For 1972 they say Happy New Year.

New Machine May Help Solve Litter Problem

By HERBERT SPARROW

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UPI) — Joseph L. Moore is a little man in this country. No big D & B Rating. No big corporate job. Just an average guy.

But Moore became interested in environmental pollution, one of the big issues of the day, because he became irritated with litter on the highways. And he did something about it. "It's mostly a case of people not caring," Moore said. "And it's a problem that's always going to be with us."

Moore, who has designed and built farm and heavy construction equipment, has a patent on a machine he thinks will help solve the litter problem. His retrieval system consists of a drum hauled by a tractor and equipped with hand-operated "grabbing prongs."

The drum is 47 inches in diameter and 24 inches wide and contains 400 spring-loaded prongs arranged in rows of five. As the drum is pulled across the ground it picks up bottles, cans, paper cartons and other large litter and deposits them in an attached hopper.

The drums can be used singly or in groups and can pick up litter in grass up to a foot deep. Moore said the drums operate on all surfaces, including hard roadway and in varying weather conditions.

Moore estimates the machine working at about five miles per hour will pick up about 96 per cent of the litter it covers and do the work of 15 men covering a 10-foot swath.

Moore said the machine has only two moving parts (two bearings in the wheels) and that the upkeep is inexpensive.

Moore, 49, a native of Lubbock, Texas, moved to Lexington about 19 months ago. He began designing and assembling the machine in December of 1970 and by August had the first working model.

"I have shown it to several manufacturers," he said. "I hope to find someone who can make it faster and cheaper than I can, although I will build it myself if no one else will."

SOYBEANS, GRAINS

OPEN WEAK

CHICAGO (AP) — Soybeans and grain futures prices opened on a weak tone on the Chicago Board of Trade today and then rallied.

A strong factor in the selling in the major pits was the government's weekly report on exports. The figures for last week were under trade expectations and lower than the previous week.

Selling in soybeans produced a loss of 1 cent and around 1/2 cent in wheat and corn and oats. Minutes after the opening, however, new commission house buying and light short-covering improved the price structures.

The new buying in corn and oats was attributed to a feeling that usage of feed grains will expand in the inclement weather. Oats fell later under new selling that depressed prices again.

The rally in soybeans eliminated all losses and prices improved by 1/2 cent over Monday's close. Soybean meal gained around 25 cents a ton but oil futures were irregular.

The new strength in wheat came on buying by local professionals and flour houses. After about an hour, soybeans were 1/4 to 1/2 cent a bushel higher, January 3.06 1/2; wheat was 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, March 1.61 1/2; corn was 1/4 higher, March 1.22 1/2 and oats were 1/4 to 1/2 lower, March 73 cents.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices closed around their highs for the day Tuesday after recovering from an early decline.

The closing Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was up 2.93 to 892.23. At one point it was down more than 2 points.

Analysts attributed the early market slide to profit-taking, which they said was only to be expected after the six-week post-Thanksgiving rally in the last part of 1971.

In the news background, many major banks lowered their prime lending rate to 5 per cent from 5 1/2 per cent, its lowest level in almost six years.

Analysts said this further indication of the trend toward lower interest rates helped the market to advance.

The New York Stock Exchange index of some 1,300 common stocks gained .16 to 56.39.

Big Board volume was 15.19 million shares, compared with 12.57 million shares Monday.

There were 837 advances and 590 declines out of 1,732 issues traded on the Big Board. The market had 28 new yearly highs and 4 new lows.

The Associated Press 60-stock average advanced 1.2 to 327.6, with industrials up 2.1, rails up .1, and utilities up .8.

There were 123 big blocks of 10,000 shares or more traded on the Big Board, compared with 88 Monday. The biggest was 200,000 shares of United Aircraft at 29 1/2, up 1/2.

Rails, chemicals, rubber issues and farm implements were mixed. All other stock categories were higher.

Volume leader on the Big Board was United Aircraft, up 1 1/4 at 31.

American Stock Exchange prices also climbed. The Amex price change index gained .06 to 25.69. Volume was 4.52 million shares compared with 3.79 million shares Monday. There were 556 advances and 367 declines out of 1,174 issues traded.

NO SWEAT

NEW YORK (UPI) — Some persons are concerned that food processing destroys much nutritive value and leaves only empty calories in the form of sugar, carbohydrates and oils without any vitamins and other nutrients.

Dr. T. E. Hartung, chairman of the department of Food Science and Technology, University of Nebraska-Lincoln, says the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Food and Drug Administration continuously is examining the processing methods to assure that no massive destruction of food nutrients occurs.

LOSE UMBRELLAS

MOSCOW (UPI) — Muscovites lost more women's umbrellas during 1971 than any other item, according to the man in charge of the lost luggage office at the Kursky terminal.

Alexi S. Loparev said gloves were the second most lost item, men's portfolios third, and women's handbags fourth. Other items turned into his office during the year included camping equipment, false teeth and an aquarium full of fish.

China To Be Invited To Disarm Meet

FRANKFURT (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union have agreed in behind-the-scenes talks at the United Nations to invite Communist China to participate in the Geneva Disarmament Conference, the Frankfurt Rundschau reported from Geneva Tuesday.

The newspaper said Washington and Moscow also had agreed to call the 26-nation disarmament conference back into session on Feb. 29.

Quoting informed sources in Geneva, the report said the Russians and the Americans had not yet decided how to approach Peking with an invitation. The report said two possibilities were similarly worded but separate invitations from Washington and Moscow or a joint invitation from the two governments as cochairmen of the disarmament conference.

"A quick decision by Peking is not expected," the newspaper said. It predicted that China would demand a reorganization of the conference, including the end of the joint Soviet-American chairmanship, as a condition of its participation.

MAKES FIRST, LAST FLIGHT AS HUMAN CANNONBALL

LEICESTER, England (AP) — Steve Smith made his first and last flight as a human cannonball Monday. He was too big for the cannon.

Showman Joe Weston had hired the 210-pound, 22-year-old stunt man to be shot from his new 16-foot cannon. Wearing goggles and helmet, Smith climbed into the gun for a tryout in a gravel pit. A one-pound charge of gelignite was set off.

Smith took off and so did half the cannon barrel. Both landed 10 feet away in a pool of water. The other half of the gun backfired, wrecking the truck that was its launching pad.

"Never again," said Smith, wading ashore. "It's the last time I travel that way."

"He's too heavy," said Webb. "He should have flown 60 feet."

TONY BENNETT WED

LONDON (UPI) — Tony Bennett secretly married former dancer Sandie Grant in New York last Wednesday, a spokesman for the singer said Tuesday.

The publicity firm of Tony Barrow International said Bennett, who arrived in London Monday night for a series of television shows, disclosed as he left his London apartment that the ceremony had taken place.

C. E. Wilson, Former GE Head, Dies

BRONXVILLE, N.Y. (UPI) — Charles E. Wilson, former president of the General Electric Co. and a member of the government's industrial mobilization boards in two wars, died Monday in Lawrence Hospital after a brief illness. He was 85.

Wilson became president of GE in 1940, but stepped down in 1942 when President Franklin D. Roosevelt asked him to serve on the War Production Board. In that capacity, he helped mobilize America's industrial resources during World War II.

In 1944, Wilson returned to GE, serving as president there until 1950 when President Harry Truman asked him to serve as director of the Office of Defense Mobilization during the Korea War.

Wilson was nicknamed "Electric Charlie" by his business associates to distinguish him from Charles E. Wilson of General Motors, who was known as "Engine Charlie."

Survivors include a daughter, Margaret Wilson Pierce of New York.

U.S.-S. VIETNAM AGREE TO RESUME PEACE TALKS

PARIS (AP) — The United States and South Vietnam have agreed to resume peace talks on Thursday after a four-week suspension.

The United States called off the weekly meetings on Dec. 16 and Dec. 23, saying it wanted to give North Vietnam and the Viet Cong more time to consider their position in hopes they would enter into serious negotiations.

Both sides canceled the Dec. 30 meeting because of the heavy U.S. air attack on North Vietnam last week. Each side accused the other of taking wrongful military action.

BROWN COUNTY HEALTH MEETING SET JANUARY 6

MT. STERLING — There will be a Brown county health meeting Thursday evening, Jan. 6, in the Brown county farm bureau basement in Mt. Sterling, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Lawrence O'Reilly, University of Illinois health specialist, will discuss how a community can solve its health problems. The public is invited to attend.

The Buckhorn unit of homemakers extension will meet Thursday, Jan. 6 in the home of Mrs. Wayne Norton, at 1:30 in the afternoon.

The Cooperstown unit of homemakers extension will meet Thursday, Jan. 6 in the home of Mrs. Elbert Logsdon, at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Allen Zimmerman of Mt. Sterling entertained in her home over the holidays with her sons and families present: Mr. and Mrs. Gary Zimmerman of Palatine and Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Zimmerman and family of Beardstown.

An old hand at the Boston Ropewalk, Bernie Cavanaugh, above, holds a 9" rope to be tested. Above right, a high speed ropemaking machine in action.

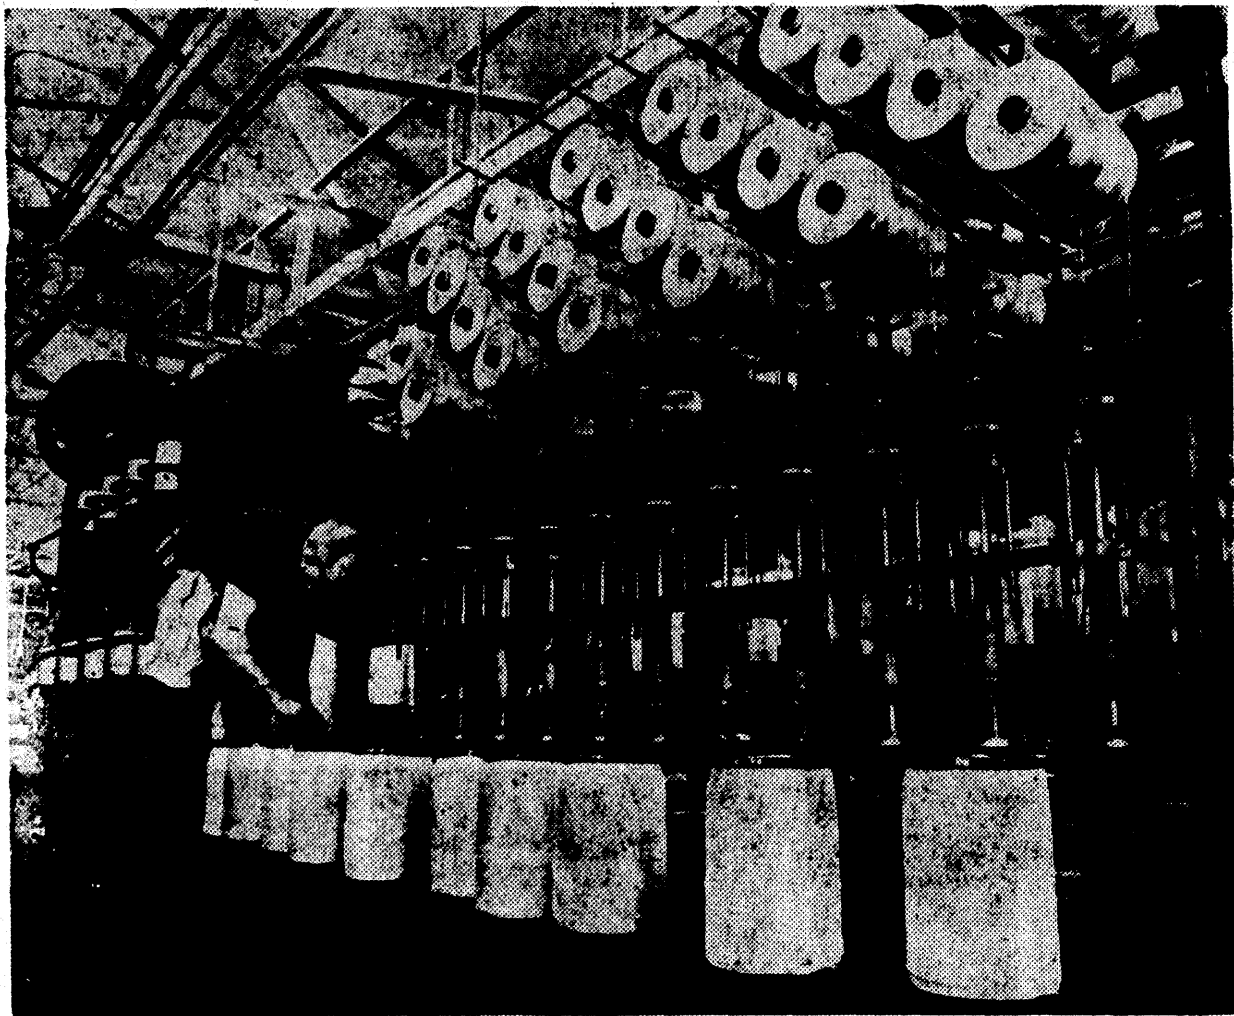

End of the Line

"In that building, long and low . . . human spiders spin and spin." Men and machines busily turning out chains and webs of rope and cordage—the scene has changed somewhat since Longfellow wrote about it in 1854, in his poem, "The Ropewalk," but a look around the historic Ropewalk at the Boston Naval Shipyard still shows why the analogy came to mind. However, although the ropemakers may have been immortalized by the poet, present day economic realities have brought into sight the probable end of the Ropewalk. The Navy has decided to close the famous, 137-year-old institution at the end of the year.

The original Ropewalk got its name from the 1,200-foot walkways down which the ropemakers laid out long strands of hemp fibers before twisting them into rope. That old building is now a museum, and ropemaking is carried on in a newer facility across the street, where largely automated equipment and nylon fibers are used to produce over a million pounds of cordage a year. The current mission of the Ropewalk has been "research, development, testing and production of cording." Although the era of sailing vessels and their need for miles of rope for riggings is gone, the Navy has used ropes for purposes as varied as tying duffle bags and anchoring aircraft carriers. Here on this Picture Show page are scenes of the Ropewalk's operation—and soon that'll be history, too.

PICTURE SHOW photographs by J. Walter Green.

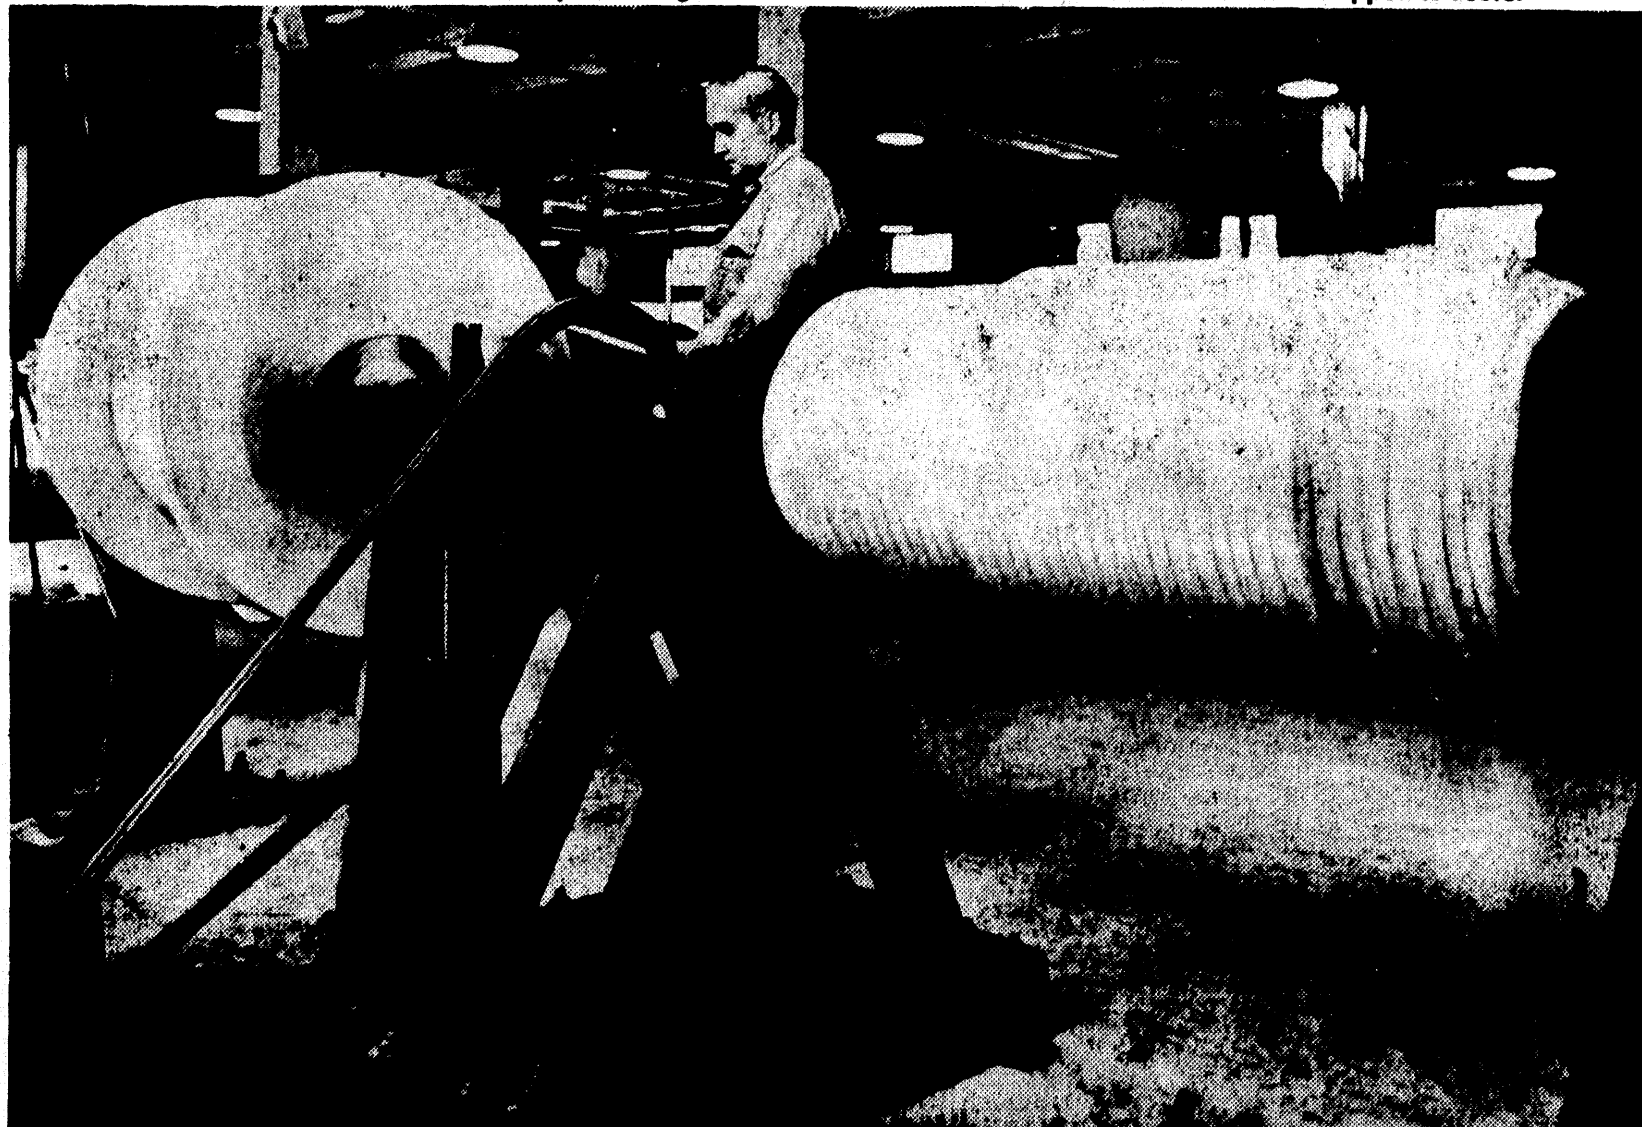

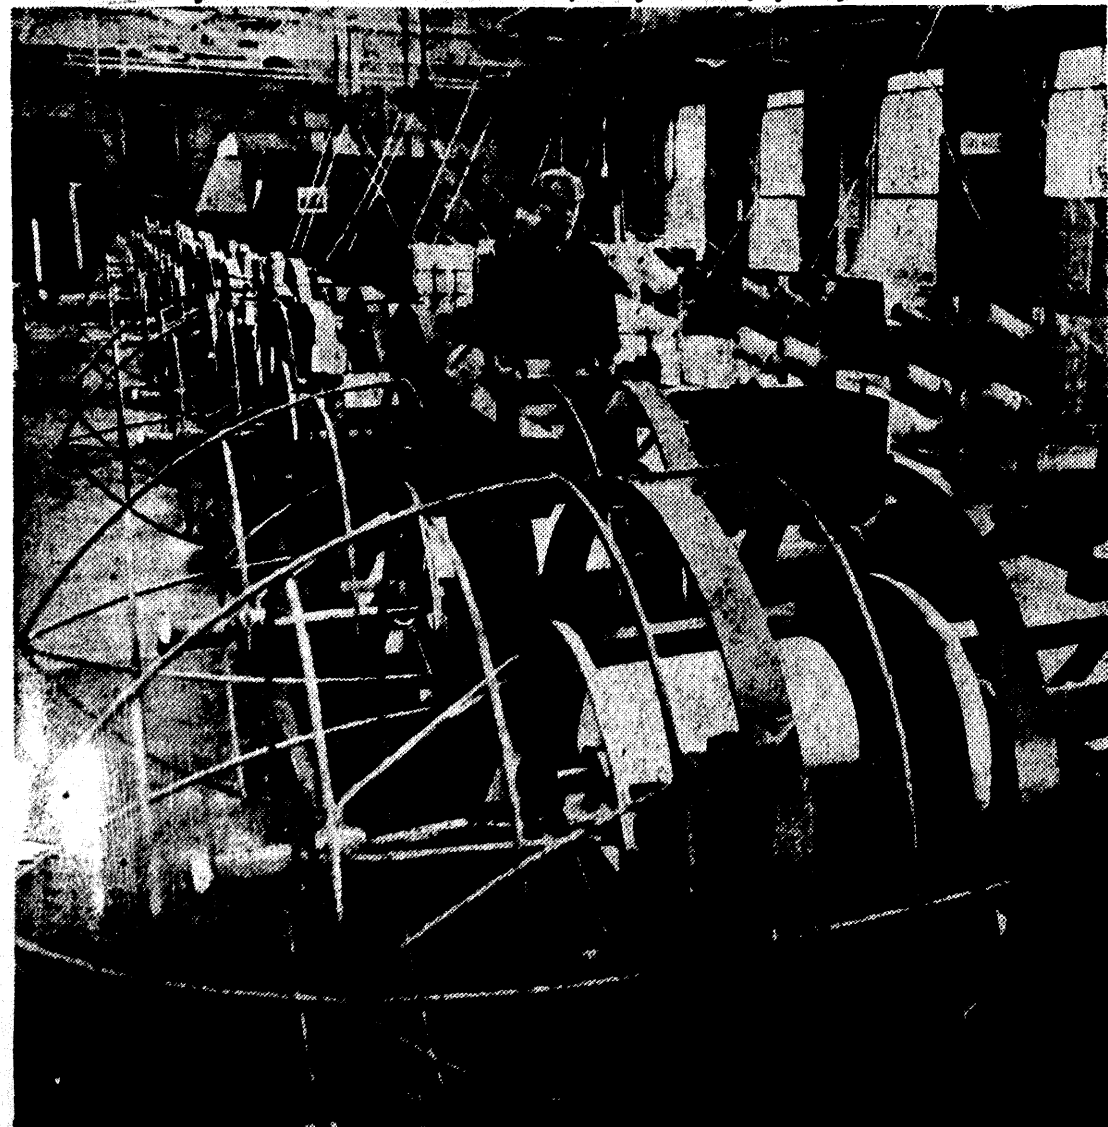

The machines above are some of the Ropewalk's oldest, still in use after 35 years. The modern ones below, two years old, spin nylon fibers into cord.

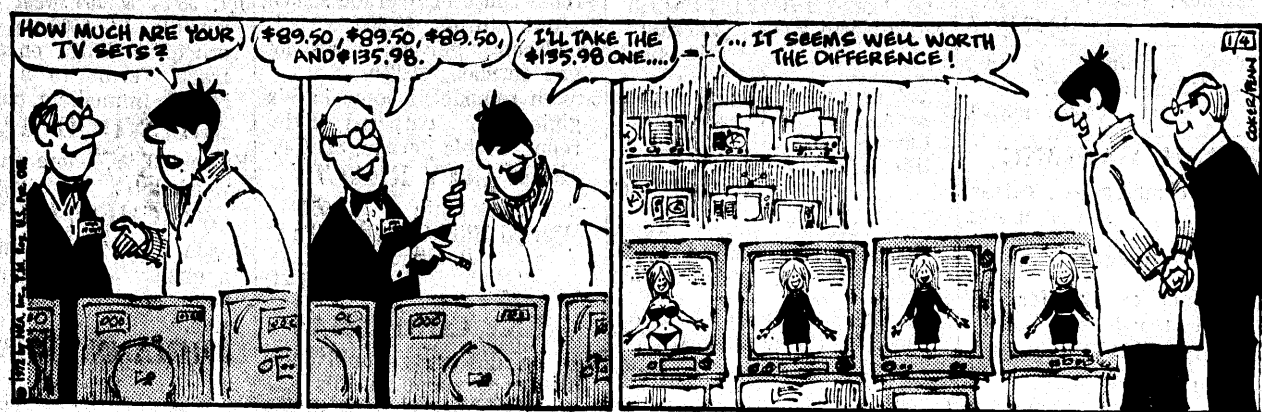

Above, Gino Rappoli of Quincy, Mass., feeds nylon cords into the automatic rope twisting machine.

The finished nylon rope, below, is spooled from the machine to the reels on which it's shipped to users.

Camera Angles

By IRVING DESFOR

AP Wirephoto

A variety of photographic books at hand indicates the wide range of interest among camera faddists. Among them:

"Discover Your SELF Through Photography" is by Ralph Hattersley (Association Press, New York, $14.95), often called photography's most controversial writer.

Hattersley is a teacher with a gaudy approach: he buzzes around and periodically lands a stinger, keeping you continually alert. His ideas sting because they can be unpredictable and provocative.

"You're listening to advice from a blind man," he says. "But listen with selective and suspicious openmindedness. Accept no idea until you have tested it yourself . . . but at least try. It is better to try and make mistakes than do nothing at all."

In the first chapter, "Free Your Creative Mind," Hattersley lists 60 picture ideas for photographers. "There isn't a new one in the list," he stresses, "because I picked only ideas which had been proven time and time again. But each is adaptable so that slight variations produce pictures with elements of uniqueness and surprise. And each can be done by beginners or be a challenge to pros."

Here's a sample: Picture a familiar object in an unusual environment. Imagine a rocking chair up a tree, an egg on a busy sidewalk and people's reactions, a puppy in a pot on a stove or a tin soldier in a graveyard at sunset. Think along these lines and let yourself go.

There are seven other chapters, hundreds of pictures and lots more of Hattersley's evocative ideas.

"Waldman on Theater" (Doubleday, New York, $10), presents innovative productions in 358 pictures that pack a powerful punch. Unlike usual theatrical photography, all performers were photographed in Max Waldman's studio, not in a theater. His stark black and white style is dark and moody and has a Rembrandtesque quality.

"Man and Machine" by

Henri Cartier-Bresson (Viking Press, New York, $12.95), is a collection of perceptive observations by a camera craftsman of the varied relationships between people and the mechanical world they live in.

"Walter Chandon's Book of Foals and Horses" (Crown, New York, $6.95), is a photographic album by a specialist in animal photography. With all the important breeds and the various stages in horses' lives pictured, this makes a valuable reference book for artists and amateur photographers, as well as a visual treat for animal lovers.

"Aquarium Fishes" with color photos by Douglas Faulkner and text by James Atz (Viking Press, New York, $10.95), is a manual on the history, beauty and care of fishes in homes. The color reproductions show why Faulkner has earned a reputation as a specialist in underwater photography.

"The Amish," a photographic album by Perry Cragg, Cleveland newspaper photographer, was posthumously published by his widow as a memorial to "the poet with a camera." The pictures taken over a 30-year period, reflect Cragg's admiration for the people who withdraw from the world's vanities in favor of spiritual simplicity and dedication to the soil. The soft-cover book ($3.50) is available from: Mrs. Cragg, 1470 Maple Rd., Cleveland Heights, Ohio 44121.

Dr. Andrew Hoekstra New Superintendent At State Hospital

"A new superintendent for the Jacksonville State Hospital has been appointed," Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie announced today. "He is Dr. Andrew L. Hoekstra, 52, a clinical-administrative psychiatrist who will be assuming his duties on February 1, 1972."

"Dr. Albert Glass, director of the Department of Mental Health, and Dr. William Anderson, administrator, Mental Health Region 3A, have been in communication with Dr. Hoekstra for several months," the Governor continued, "and we feel fortunate that a man of his professional skill and administrative experience will be joining the Illinois Department of Mental Health as superintendent of the oldest mental hospital in the State of Illinois. I feel sure the people of Jacksonville, and the communities of Mental Health Region 3A served by the Jacksonville State Hospital, will find him to be not only a leader in the mental health field, but an active and concerned citizen as well."

Dr. Hoekstra, as superintendent, will be filling the position recently vacated by Dr. Alfred P. Bay who retired to his home in Topeka, Kansas in September of 1971.

Dr. Hoekstra will be coming from Ionia, Michigan, where he has been medical director of the Ionia County Mental Health Clinic and program director of the Ionia County Mental Health Board. He also has been serving as supervisor and consultant for a number of mental health specialists.

Dr. Hoekstra attended the University of Chicago where, in 1941, he received an S.B. degree in physics with a minor in chemistry. Following graduation, he accepted a teaching position in the physics department at the University of Colorado.

In July 1945 Dr. Hoekstra received his M.D. degree from the University of Colorado School of Medicine. Upon graduation, he continued his studies through a rotating internship at the United States Public Health Service Hospital in Chicago. When his internship was completed, he remained at the hospital where he became supervisor of interns and provided general medical and surgical care.

Dr. Hoekstra is licensed to practice medicine and surgery in both Colorado and Michigan.

In July 1947 Dr. Hoekstra started his residency training in psychiatry at the United States Public Health Service Hospital in Lexington, Kentucky. Two years later he was transferred to the Veterans Administration Hospital in Louisville to further his residency training. During this time, as senior resident, he not only provided in-patient care at the VA Hospital, but also worked at the Louisville Mental Hygiene Clinic and the Norton Memorial Infirmary. During this time, he was an instructor in the University of Louisville School of Medicine.

In July 1950 he became a staff psychiatrist at the VA Hospital and his duties expanded to include supervision of both psychiatric and medical residents as well as additional teaching responsibilities at the university school of medicine.

In September 1951, Dr. Hoekstra was appointed staff psychiatrist at Pine Rest Christian Hospital in Grand Rapids, Michigan, where he worked with both the in-patient and out-patient services. He was also involved with In-Service Aide Training.

From October 1952 until November 1966 Dr. Hoekstra was in private practice in Grand Rapids, where he also served as psychiatric consultant to the staff of the Grand Rapids Child Guidance Clinic providing consultation for parents. He also worked with children in play therapy. He contributed many hours to community information and education programs through lectures and seminars for interested groups.

In September 1966 Dr. Hoekstra became medical director of the Ionia (Michigan) Mental Health Center. During this time, he also became psychiatric consultant at the Montcalm Mental Health Center in Stanton, Michigan, as well as consultant to the Montcalm County Mental Health Board and to the directors and staff of the day care center.

Dr. Hoekstra is married. He and his wife Portia are the parents of eight children, ranging in age from 25 to 10 years. A daughter, Adriana, 17, entered the senior class at Routt High School in Jacksonville in the fall and has been active both in school and community activities.

While in Ionia, Dr. Hoekstra has been a member of the Michigan State Regional Health Planning Committee. Dr. Hoekstra is a member of the Ionia County Medical Association, the Michigan State Medical Association, and the American Medical Association. He is also a member of the American Psychiatric Society; Michigan Society of Neurology and Psychiatry; American Geriatric Society; and the Academy of Religion and Mental Health.

He has been active in community education programs. In the early 1960's, he participated in a series of ten panel television programs on child development. He also participated in a series of three conferences on Religion and Mental Health which was sponsored collaboratively by educational institutions in the Grand Rapids area.

Dr. Hoekstra is an accomplished sculptor and artist and writes poetry. Although in the amateur status, he plays the organ and is especially interested in liturgical music. Mrs. Hoekstra is a teacher and is now working toward her master's degree in library science.

Dr. and Mrs. Hoekstra are members of the Catholic Church.

Child Receives Minor Injury

City police investigated a one-car accident at the corner of East Morton and South Clay about 8:30 a.m. Tuesday in which a small child received a minor injury.

City police said Mrs. Faye M. Fry, 24, 544 Brooklyn Ave., was southbound on Clay, attempting a left turn onto Morton, when her car slid into a traffic light standard.

Tammy Fry, two, daughter of the driver, received an injury but did not require hospital treatment.

City police said the traffic base was broken off by the impact. The Fry auto was towed from the scene.

Hotel Fire Kills Four In Springfield Tuesday

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Three men and one woman died Tuesday in a fire that swept the upper two floors of a 75-year-old hotel occupied mainly by pensioners.

One victim was identified by the coroner's office as Bradley De Castro, 62, a resident of the hotel that once was in the Statler chain but bore no formal name in recent years.

Fire Chief John Bartlett identified the other four victims as R. V. Collins, 54, and Robert Hickson, 57. He tentatively identified the fourth victim as Mary Strickler and said she was in her 60s.

Three bodies were found in the upper two floors of the 3-story brick structure before the fire was struck at dawn. Another was found in the ruins hours later.

The cause of the fire was not immediately determined. Police questioned a man about the possibility of arson but released him after he submitted to a lie

Carl Trent, Morgan Native, Dies In West

Word has been received here of the death of a Morgan county native, Carl L. Trent of San Bernardino, Calif., Saturday evening at his home.

He was born in Morgan county, May 12, 1905, and married the former Ann Haley of Quincy in 1940. He lived in East Moline and Quincy prior to his move to California.

Survivors include his wife, his mother, Mrs. Mary Trent of 339 East Douglas Ave., a resident of the Melrose Nursing Center; four sisters, Mrs. Lucille Wallbaum, Redlands, Calif.; Mrs. Frances Stover and Mrs. Velma Hensley, both of Toledo, Ohio and Mrs. Josephine Dickerson, San Bernardino, Calif. Several nieces and nephews and a cousin, Mrs. Della Harrington of Springfield, also survive. All are former residents of Jacksonville.

The deceased was a member of the Masonic order for the past 30 years and a member of various labor unions before his retirement in 1966.

Funeral services and burial was held Tuesday in San Bernardino.

5 Jail Terms For Defendants Here Tuesday

Judge John B. Wright ordered five defendants to serve jail terms on pleas of guilty before his court Tuesday, all on separate offenses.

Virgil M. Bryant, 46, of Springfield entered a plea of guilty to two charges, driving after revocation and illegal transportation of liquor. Bryant was ordered to spend 90 days at the Vandalia state penal farm and turned over to the custody of the sheriff for transportation there. He was charged by city police.

Melvin R. Brockway, 19, of Bluffs entered a plea of guilty to illegal possession of liquor and was ordered to spend five days in the county jail.

Robert W. Bradburn, 18, of 873 West State appeared for a probation hearing on a charge of theft. Probation was denied and he was ordered to spend five days in the county jail. Bradburn entered a guilty plea Dec. 20 to theft of gasoline from a local bulk plant.

Alfred O. Darle, 55, of Hialeah, Fla., entered a plea of guilty to driving while under the influence of alcohol and was ordered to spend five days in the county jail. Darle was charged by city police Monday evening.

Arlin F. Davis, 19, of 343 East Morton entered pleas of guilty to disorderly conduct and illegal consumption of liquor. He was ordered to spend three days in jail and given credit for time already spent. Davis was arrested by city police early Saturday and was released.

Mark Fisher, 22, of 710 E. Douglas entered a plea of guilty to criminal damage to property and his case continued to Wednesday for sentencing. Fisher was charged by city police Saturday. He was taken to the county jail until sentencing.

Board Orders Study Of 'Priority' Needs Throughout District

Members of the Board of Education of School District 117 directed the administration to study the acute needs for buildings and repair to all elementary schools in the district with particular emphasis on the Murrayville-Woodson area.

Board President J. Ivan Heaton made the motion and asked that a progress report be returned to the board by the first meeting in March.

Heaton included in his motion consultation with architects if necessary to determine cost estimates and a list of priorities too.

Generally, the board plans to spend the residue from the bond issue authorized to build two new schools and refurbish two others sometime during the present calendar year.

Estimates range up to $240,000 but are not yet definite.

Reason for the emphasis on the Murrayville community school area is that it appears to be the greatest growth area within District 117.

The board met in the media center of Washington elementary school, a portion of the school which had once been an auditorium. Most other schools in the elementary system do not have facilities to compare with it and some effort will be made, according to Dr. Clifford Crone, to upgrade whatever facilities seem to be of highest priority with what funds are available.

One project which may be high on the priority list is sidewalks around Washington school. Washington may have the distinction of enjoying the worst sidewalks in the district, although no such census or opinion survey has officially been made.

New Schools

Members of the board invited Bill Gussner, principal of Armstrong junior high school, and Harry Emrick, principal of Eisenhower elementary school, to appear informally and give a brief progress report on the operation of the two new schools.

Both Gussner and Emrick indicated that students in all grade levels seemed to adapt to the change in program and the new physical facilities much better than either expected.

Gussner said a parents' council meets once a month at Armstrong to discuss various aspects of the program. He said most of the inquiries centered around such things as the lunch program, lockers, food, benches for those who have to wait for buses and other aspects of the physical plant rather than curriculum.

Emrick said the boys and girls enjoy going to school and seem to be doing very well. He said the educational program is about two years ahead of schedule in the planning. He said the biggest job was selling the idea to parents of the open classrooms and this has been accomplished by a very active group of people whose children attend Eisenhower school.

Both principals paid compliments to members of the faculty and staff for the success of the programs in both new schools.

Emrick said the elementary students have a wide variety of electives from which to choose at Eisenhower. He mentioned knitting, art, ceramics, bridge, folk singing, model building, and others. He said the student may choose whatever he wishes but must stick with the project for a full week. Emrick said several people from the community share their particular specialty with the students for 30 to 40 minutes a day for a week. "The kids love it," he said.

Rooftop Units

The biggest difficulty found in the two new schools seems to be the operation of the rooftop heating and air-conditioning units. Few of the units have ever worked properly on automatic settings and others have been difficult to operate on manual settings.

Bob Gill who is in charge of buildings and grounds said a meeting was held with the contractor and representatives of several firms who have component parts in the units over the Christmas vacation.

Gill and Dr. Crone both indicated that the heating contractor has extended every courtesy to the school district in an effort to make the units operate properly, but that several component parts are being changed. Gill explained that such things as gas pressure at the individual units, valves, draft controls and other small parts have created an acute problem.

Cold spots throughout the two schools has caused some changes in program while the units are undergoing repairs.

Several other routine items were handled by the board. School had been in session only three days since the last board meeting Dec. 21.

No-Fault Begins

Court Justice Stays Old No-Fault Ruling

CHICAGO (AP) — An Illinois Supreme Court justice held Tuesday that the no-fault insurance policies which became effective Jan. 1 in Illinois could continue pending the court's ruling on the constitutionality of the no-fault law.

Justice Thomas E. Kluczynski said the high court would take jurisdiction in the matter, but also recognized that existing contracts between insurers and their clients are private contracts and would be allowed to remain in effect until the court rules.

Circuit Court Judge Daniel A. Covelli ruled Dec. 29 that the Illinois no-fault concept was unconstitutional on the grounds that it discriminated against the urban poor. He ordered an injunction against the program and threatened contempt of court against anyone who violated the injunction.

The full Illinois Supreme Court will meet Jan. 28 in Springfield to consider the constitutionality of the law.

A spokesman for the Illinois attorney general's office said the state sought the stay because the insurance companies would have been subjected to great costs if no-fault policies had to be abandoned until the constitutional question was cleared.

The Illinois Insurance Information Commission said the ruling means that all no-fault policies are in full effect, that no-fault claims can be processed and that applications for new policies can be accepted.

The committee said all liability policies for the five million private passengers cars in Illinois had the basic no-fault provisions automatically included as of Jan. 1.

Leonard M. Ring, a lawyer who filed suit before Judge Covelli last week, said his challenge did not involve the insurance firms, only the constitutional issue with the law.

Judge Covelli said the insurance companies "can enter into any kind of contract they want to with individuals... I cannot prohibit an insurance company from insuring the loss of an individual's tooth for $1 million if they want to. But the law is unconstitutional unless the Supreme Court says I'm wrong."

Betty Puckett Heads Muscular Dystrophy Here

Mrs. Betty Puckett, wife of Rev. Charles Puckett, 16 Windrush, has been appointed Jacksonville campaign chairman for the 1972 March against Muscular Dystrophy, according to an announcement Tuesday in Springfield by Florin E. Barton, district director of Muscular Dystrophy Association of America.

Mrs. Puckett will head the Muscular Dystrophy Association's annual appeal for funds to support a broad attack on the problems created by muscular dystrophy.

There are more than 1,000,000 persons in the country, mostly children, who suffer from this disease and related neuromuscular disorders. Medical research to find the cause and cure for the mysterious malady is the largest part of the MDAA's program.

The local drive is a part of a nationwide effort in which hundreds of thousands of marchers will participate culminating locally in a door-to-door appeal Jan. 30.

In its massive program of scientific investigation into the neuro-muscular diseases, MDAA supports individual research projects, both in this country and abroad, and in addition allocates nearly a million and a half dollars annually to the association to build and sponsor the Institute for Muscle Disease in New York City.
